La presente monografía ofrece un análisis del envejecimiento desde la perspectiva del individuo mayor que envejece en casa, a través del conocimiento de las condiciones y de la calidad de vida de esta población. Qué entiende la población mayor por calidad de vida, cómo la evalúa y cuáles son los factores explicativos del nivel de calidad de vida a la edad anciana son los objetivos de esta obra, afrontados a partir del diseño y realización de una encuesta con la inclusión de instrumentos de medida específicos. Otras fuentes de datos han sido los censos de población y vivienda y los padrones de población. El análisis de los datos se ha realizado mediante la aplicación de técnicas de estadística univariante y multivariante; en este sentido, el libro se acompaña de un anexo metodológico donde se recogen los procedimientos estadísticos empleados, y que es accesible a través de la web de la Fundación BBVA. Desde la multidimensionalidad del hecho de envejecer, y bajo un enfoque que considera además de los aspectos normativos también los perceptuales de las condiciones y calidad de vida, esta obra permite conocer las necesidades de la población según envejece y afrontar políticas de acción para mantener al mayor en su entorno habitual de residencia, como expresión de su forma ideal de envejecer, alojarse, relacionarse, participar y compartir. El presente trabajo constituye una herramienta útil, no solo para el contexto geronto-geográfico analizado población mayor residente en vivienda familiar en la Comunidad de Madrid , sino para un ámbito más amplio, por cuanto esta población muestra características comunes con la población mayor residente en comunidad en el conjunto nacional.

 Amazon, Apple, Facebook, and Google are the four most influential companies on the planet. Just about everyone thinks they know how they got there. Just about everyone is wrong. For all that's been written about the Four over the last two decades, no one has captured their power and staggering success as insightfully as Scott Galloway. Instead of buying the myths these companies broadcast, Galloway asks fundamental questions. How did the Four infiltrate our lives so completely that they're almost impossible to avoid (or boycott)? Why does the stock market forgive them for sins that would destroy other firms? And as they race to become the world's first trillion-dollar company, can anyone challenge them? In the same irreverent style that has made him one of the world's most celebrated business professors, Galloway deconstructs the strategies of the Four that lurk beneath their shiny veneers. He shows how they manipulate the fundamental emotional needs that have driven us since our ancestors lived in caves, at a speed and scope others can't match.

And he reveals how you can apply the lessons of their ascent to your own business or career. Whether you want to compete with them, do business with them, or simply live in the world they dominate, you need to understand the Four. Marketing Crafts and Visual Arts Artisan A Publishers Weekly Best Book of 2019 Why do we make things by hand? And why do we make them beautiful? Led by the question of why working with our hands remains vital and valuable in the modern world, author and maker Melanie Falick went on a transformative, inspiring journey. Traveling across continents, she met quilters and potters, weavers and painters, metalsmiths, printmakers, woodworkers, and more, and uncovered truths that have been speaking to us for millennia yet feel urgently relevant today: We make in order to slow down. To connect with others. To express ideas and emotions, feel competent, create something tangible and long-lasting. And to feed the soul. In revealing stories and gorgeous original photographs, Making a Life captures all the joy of making and the power it has to give our lives authenticity and meaning.

In a tucked away corner of North Philly, six regulars gather at a neighborhood watering hole. Over twenty years, they turn their collective memories into a vivacious mythology. The tales they'd rather forget, however, keep sneaking up and tapping them on the shoulder. At Daphne's Dive, an aloe plant, a girl's sneaker, a stiff drink, and mounds of trash become talismanic treasures to a group of outsiders trying to be "in" together.
