GAVIN ANAYA

Dahlia Quilts and Projects
Fox Chapel Publishing
Ann comes to quilting as a stained glass artist with the luxury of auditioning glass pieces throughout the design process before a piece is finished. By using a simple fusing technique that treats fabric patches as though they were glass, she shows how quilters can make an entire quilt without sewing until the three basted layers are quilted. Use her 7 patterns or create your own, try out fabrics on a forgiving fusible background, replace patches until you're satisfied, layer, and stitch. Her turned-edge technique gives an elegant look to any quilt. No more ripping out stitches because there's no sewing until you quilt!

Breezy summer days, reminiscent of old-fashioned gardens abundant with flowers and their ever-present watering cans, are evoked by this quilt. Accent tulips and sunflowers surround a quilted watering can at the quilt's center. Bold sunflowers anchor the corners and are spread around the border. An "envelope"-style pillow throw highlights another sunflower surrounded by a flowing, ivy vine. All the applique patterns, templates for quilting, assembly instructions, and fabric requirements for this delightful quilt are included. Also includes are complete guidelines for finishing the project. A wonderful addition to your quilt pattern shelf!

A Quilting Life Landauer (IL)

Carolyn Forster explains how to break large quilt designs down into small, portable sections. Using her clear instructions you can piece a block on one outing, quilting the next-and once you're ready to join the blocks, most of the quilting is already done. The BASICS section of the book explains everything you need to know to prepare manageable pieces of quilting. No special equipment or materials needed. The PROJECT section contains 15 lovely quilts created using "Quilt-on-the-Go" blocks. Each framed block is pieced and quilted individually, using the full-size templates provided. Quick-Easy-Effective. Stash Statement Quilt in a Day.
