Genkouyoushi is a traditional manuscript

paper for Japanese writing. It is especially useful to students for practice or formal assignments. Each page is printed with vertical columns of squares, with each square designed to accommodate a single Japanese character or punctuation mark. Unlike other Genkouyoushi, our notebook may be used with any type of writing instrument (pencil, pen or ink brush) with or without a shitajiki (under-sheet)
and each template square allows for correct spacing of characters to fit one kanji, hiragana or katakana. A perfect tool to learn Japanese writing.

The Cornell note taking method is a widely

recognized system of note taking commonly taught to university students.
The right column covers note-taking while attempting to answer questions/keywords in the
summary then allows for reflection on the material.
It's the perfect book for categorizing and organizing your notes. Not only very popular with students, with its noteorganization feature, you can also conquer
meetings, lectures and

What comes in something plain, but is also very useful? An unruled composition book! This book has unruled pages, free of lines and has no unnecessary visual distractions. If you need a
even drawing, then this is the perfect tool for you to express yourself without limitations. It's a good opportunity for children to write freely and teaches them to become more conscious of placing the
than just filling up the lines. This is ideal for freeform journaling or sketching, note taking,
drawing, doodling, among endless possibilities.
