"Kwezi is a young city dweller who discovers he has super human abilities. His journey starts off as a self serving narcissist who only uses his abilities to further his social status. This is until he is tracked down by three individuals who exhibit similar evolutionary talents. It's not long until Kwezi is confronted with the truth about his powers and is faced with an important decision; to carry out his life serving no particular purpose, or joining his new companions on a journey to discover who he really is and what he is destined to be"--Back cover, volume [1].

Many readers know Victorian England through the writings of Charles Dickens. Not only did Dickens put a face to the era through his memorable characters, he also captured the spirit of his age in entertaining fiction spun from its social concerns and historical events. This literary omnibus brings together five of Dickens's best-known novels: Oliver Twist, A Christmas Carol, David Copperfield, Great Expectations and A Tale of Two Cities. Prolific, energetic and committed to social change, no other novelist of the time did as much as Charles Dickens to rally his readers to action and no other writer at any time has created such an extraordinary collection of well-loved novels. This exquisitely designed leatherbound edition has distinctive gilt edging and an attractive silk-ribbon bookmark; it will make an artful addition to any home library.

Little Wolf's Book of Badness

'As an act of restoring power and agency to young black girls in South Africa ... [the author] wrote a story about a voiceless girl of colour in search of a sound of her own.'--Preface. '[T]he story follows the journey of a young girl whose fantastical stories live in her eyes. She has no voice -- just a "golden cocoon" humming inside of her throat. Visited by a "red-winged woman" sent from the moon, the two begin the process of finding her voice only to learn that it's always lived inside of her. It's a classic tale of learning to love, trust and accept oneself.'--
