Grace Before Meals Dimensions for Living

The colorful cover of this book expands to form a small easel with prayers that can be read from both sides of the table. Suitably designed for your family table, it makes possible the offering of regular, daily thanksgiving before your meals, reminding us that we live every moment of our lives in the near presence of God in Christ. A wonderful gift for family and friends!

Good Graces Amor Deus

Sunday Mealtime Prayers provides families a convenient blend of mealtime prayers (at midday or in the evening) and the Liturgy of the Hours on Sunday. It arranges the traditional elements of the Church's daily prayer (psalms, Scripture readings, and intercessions) around the Sunday brunch or supper and includes selections of these elements within a simple, unchanging format. The eighteen sets of prayers are arranged according to the seasons of the liturgical year.

It's OK To Say "God" Golden Books

Who doesn't feel a slight panic when called upon to say grace? Ack! Mealtime Blessings is the answer to your prayers. Collected here are more than 40 graces to say at mealtime or anytime when called upon. From the intro: "Ever since man has gathered to break bread, a mealtime prayer has helped to bring family and friends together.... What a wonderful gift we can give to our families at mealtime. During a moment of prayer, the house is quiet, work stands still, our hands stop moving, and only words of thanksgiving break the silence. It is peaceful, private, and shared with family and others who make our world what it is. In this way, it brings us closer together."

Mealtime Prayers Kirkdale Press

This lovely collection offers a rich variety of readings and blessings for those who wish to pray individually or in groups. Based on the daily and seasonal rhythm of the liturgy, it appeals to all Christians. The readings are taken from the scriptures, from liturgical texts of the East and the West, and from Christian writings derived from monastic and mystical sources representing twenty centuries of a continuous and living tradition. Each reading is followed by a brief communal response and the Lord's Prayer. A beautiful meal blessing, inspired by the season or the saint of the day, brings each brief prayer time to a close.

"Our Founders would not recognize today's America. Christianity is under attack as never before. My career as a Baptist minister and as chaplain of the Texas House of Representatives has, in a sense, taken me to both sides of Jefferson's metaphorical 'wall of separation.' Mr. Armstrong puts it a bit differently: 'There should be at least a short fence of separation between Caesar and God. If the divider falls, government will strong-arm religion.' Instead of relying on sound bites, headlines, and e-mails, he takes you straight to the Supreme Court opinions that have shaped the religion clauses of the First Amendment. You will likely be very surprised at what you find. It's OK to Say 'God' brings the Constitution back to Main Street where it belongs. His commentary is both eye-opening and refreshing. His suggestions of how Christians should respond to the culture war focus more on fulfilling the mission of Jesus Christ than on whether a nativity scene or a Menorah should win the favor of the courts at Christmas. Whether you decide to implement his suggestions in your life or not, Mr. Armstrong is most concerned that all Americans stop living in ignorance of these most important laws of our land. Learn as a family—discuss these truths with your children and grandchildren—and start living your faith out loud, for contrary to false rumor, it really is OK to bring God back into our culture and back into our government. Tad will show you the way." —Pastor R.B. Hall, former chaplain of the Texas House of Representatives

Placemat Prayers, Mealtime Blessings especially for the sick. by Fr. John D. Bohrer, Joseph Stoutzenberger and watercolor art by Frank Champine. About the Book: The prayers were commissioned by Sister Rosemary Kolmer, OSF, Director of Pastoral Care at Our Lady of Lourdes Medical Center in Camden, New Jersey. She reproduced the prayers on the placemats served with meals for patients. The warm response from patients led us to print them in a booklet so that they would be available for use in other settings. Fr. John D. Bohrer is a parish priest in the Diocese of Camden, NJ. He is co-author of Praying with Francis of Assisi. Joseph Stoutzenberger is Professor of Religious Studies at Holy Family University in Philadelphia, PA. He is the author of numerous books, including: You are My Friends, Gospel Reflections for the Journey, and co-author of Praying with Francis of Assisi. Frank Champine works primarily in Chinese brush painting. He is an educational consultant and former social studies teacher in Bucks County, PA and is a breast cancer survivor. This is the second book he has illustrated.

Saying Grace Liguori/Triumph

Winner of a third-place award for prayer books from the Association of Catholic Publishers. Bless Us, O Lord belongs on the shelf of every Catholic family that wants to pray together daily. You can introduce children to original and traditional blessings, the lives of the saints, the rhythm of the Church year, and the practice of daily prayer in a way that is both appealing to them and a means to unite your whole family. Praying together at the table helps families recognize the presence of Jesus in their midst and make connections between their meal and the celebration of the Eucharist. Author Robert M. Hamma brings his warm and gentle spirit to original prayers, which he combines with traditional blessings to offer an open-and-go resource for parents and caregivers. He provides the perfect words for every occasion—from observing saint feast days and liturgical seasons to celebrating a child's birthday and remembering the life of a loved one. Bless Us, O Lord will help you with fresh ideas and tools for living the liturgy in your home and nourishing the souls of your children with stories of the saints, including prayers for days of the week; Advent, Christmas, Lent, Holy Week, and Easter; saints' feast days and holy days; national and cultural holidays; and special family celebrations to mark birthdays, anniversaries, and special achievements.

Saying grace at mealtime is a time-honored tradition for many families and a newfound source of spiritual connection for others. Whether you're a master at giving the blessing or fairly new to this sacred art, Graces will bring inspiration to your meals and special gatherings. Seeing the need for such inspiration at her family's table, June Cotner compiled a notebook of poems, prayers, and songs that she solicited from friends, strangers, family members, and ministers. She has turned her family's well-worn notebook into this elegantly packaged edition, which will complement your finest table settings. Arranged by thirteen themes, this beautiful gift book contains poems, prayers, songs, invocations, and salutations by figures as diverse as Leunig and Browning, Emerson and Starhawk, Kahlil Gibran and Schweitzer. Whether you need a Sanskrit Salutation to the Dawn, a Gaelic Blessings, or ancient Chinese Prayer, Graces offers fitting words for every occasion. Having a collection of original, traditional, and multicultural blessings makes it easy to share wisdom and insight with family and friends before meals or at special gatherings. The graces compiled here have been used by people of all religions beliefs, and special attention was given to how easily the words can be spoken by both adults and children. Life if full of occasions when it seems appropriate to say grace. Graces contains 133 prayers, poems, and blessings that span the centuries and draw from many traditions. Bring spiritual focus to your meals by bringing Graces to your table.
