Dylan's Amazing Dinosaurs Simon and Schuster

Dinosaurs: Amazing Pictures & Interesting Facts for Kids Two hundred thirty million years ago, there were no people living on Earth. There were no buildings, bridges and houses. The only living things were trees, insects and animals. Most of these creatures were different from the animals that you see nowadays. Some of these animals are called dinosaurs. The name "dinosaur" was created by Richaed Owen in 1942, which means terrible lizard in Greek. They roamed around the Earth during the Earth's period called Mesozoic or the middle life era. There were different kinds of dinosaurs. Some dinosaurs were monstrous in height and in behavior. Some of them were small and gentle.

Some of them walked using their four feet, and some of them could walk on two. Table of Contents
