A compelling and humorous story of friendship from Academy Award-winning actress Marlee Matlin. Cindy looked straight at Megan. Now she looked a little frustrated. "What's the matter? Are you deaf or something?" she yelled back. Megan screamed out, and then fell to the ground, laughing hysterically. "How did you know that?" she asked as she laughed. Megan is excited when Cindy moves into her neighborhood—maybe she'll finally have a best friend. Sure enough, the two girls quickly become inseparable. Cindy even starts to learn sign language so they can communicate more easily. But when they go away to summer camp together, problems arise. Cindy feels left out because Megan is spending all of her time with Lizzie, another deaf girl; Megan resents that Cindy is always trying to help her, even when she doesn't need help. Before they can mend their differences, both girls have to learn what it means to be a friend. Hearings Alfred Music Does God remember a child's tears and surrendered commitments? Does He really love that much? Does He heal and offer creative surprises during our journeys? What about a call to missions? Must we let a dream die? Spurgeon shares from the heart in a compelling connecting way with the reader of growing up in rural mid-west America. It seemed an ordinary life. How does any life turn extraordinary? Follow the story of faithfulness that gives hope and reminders of this extraordinary God. Impossible it seems. . . How Could He. . .!? Life turns tragic, while at the same time new life happens. God's words to Joshua ring true. "Be strong and of good courage." He can. Reinventing Bach Sword of the Lord Publishers

This is the companion solo piano songbook for David Nevue's album 'In the Soft Light of Grace.' This songbook contains sheet music for all 13 titles in that album. Most of David's scores range in the "easy" to "intermediate" piano range, with just a couple at the "early advanced" level, making this a perfect choice for pianists just starting out and giving them something to reach for that isn't intimidating. Song titles included in this sheet music songbook: Walking in Trust * In the Soft Light of Grace * Equilibrium * In the Quiet Alone * Everpresent * The Wind Blows Where It Wishes * Out of Pain, Comes Beauty * Where the Water Flows * At Last Light *

This book discusses WWI-era music in a historical context, explaining music's importance at home and abroad during

WWI as well as examining what music was being sung, played, and danced to during the years prior to America's involvement in the Great War. Why was music so important to soldiers abroad during

World War I? What role did music—ranging from classical to theater music, rags, and early jazz—play on the American homefront? Music of the

First World War explores the tremendous importance of music

during the years of the Great War—when communication technologies were extremely limited and music often took the place of connecting directly with loved ones or reminiscing via recorded images. The book's chapters cover music's contribution to the war effort; the variety of war-related songs, popular hits, and top recording artists of the war years; the music of Broadway shows and other theater productions; and important composers and lyricists. The author also explores the development of the fledgling recording industry at this time.

Hearings

Nola Dutrey is as dedicated to her jazz singing career as she is to her kids' community band in New Orleans. When she meets her best friend's brother, her heart beats with a newfound passion. But falling in love with someone whose life in New York has no future. Restaurateur and music enthusiast Rex Arceneau is in town to settle his father's estate. He must get the financials into the black before handing over the family restaurant to his sister. To reduce expenses—the weekend singer must go. However, he meets Nola, and their connection sizzles. When he hears her sing, he's hooked. Nola's torn between powerful attraction and life in New Orleans. Rex is determined to use music as a secret weapon to entice Nola north. Will she ever be a bride at Fleur de Lis or will life's dissonant notes ruin their harmony and once-in-a-lifetime love?
