Captivating poems and visual art seek to bring comfort and solidarity to anyone living with Bipolar Disorder. In this remarkable debut, Shira Erlichman pens a love letter to Lithium, her medication for Bipolar Disorder. With inventiveness, compassion, and humor, she thrusts us into a world of unconventional praise. From an unexpected encounter with her grandmother’s ghost, to a bubble bath with Björk, to her plumber’s confession that he, too, has Bipolar, Erlichman buoyantly topples stigma against the mentally ill. These are necessary odes to self-acceptance, resilience, and the jagged path toward healing. With startling language, and accompanied by her bold drawings and collages, she gives us a sparkling, original view into what makes us human.

"Ice Cream for the Soul is eloquently written and is an ingenious work of art. The words in each poem carry such a richness that connects, comforts, and inspires the human spirit in a way that is thoughtful and transforming." --Dr. Tecsa Evans This is a collection of poems and art inspirations that I enjoyed writing and painting for more than forty years. The art images are from my Chaos collection. They depict the chaotic lives we live before meeting Christ in black and white. Through coloration, they then show how his love can change our lives forever, making them full of life and beauty. My hope is that you find inspiration, encouragement, and joy in the reading of this book.
