In this spellbinding sequel to The Mystwick School of Musicraft, Amelia must master the magic of Composing to help her school win a magic competition—and save her friends from a mysterious evil. Things are finally looking up for Amelia Jones: she's officially a Mystwick student, and she even has a teacher to help her learn how to use her rare Composing magic. When Mystwick enters an international magic competition, it's Amelia's chance to Compose something that will help them win the day. The only problem is that she still doesn't understand how her powers work. But then she hears about a super exclusive Midnight Orchestra—half performance, half magical black market—and Amelia is sure that's where she'll find the answer to her Composing problem. But the Midnight Orchestra is far more sinister than it initially appears and if Amelia can't unlock her Composing powers, not only will Mystwick lose the musicraft competition, she won't be able to rescue her friends from the danger unleashed in this thrilling adventure.

El impulso que guía los trabajos de este volumen es el de promover la enseñanza de las literaturas latinoamericanas en las aulas españolas. La multiplicidad y riqueza de las propuestas que aquí se ofrecen, invitan a asumir el reto de incorporar a la enseñanza estas voces del otro lado del Atlántico. El prólogo de Jaime García Padrino subraya la intención manifiesta desde el título: superar las fronteras imaginarias que obstaculizan la circulación de muchas obras literarias, y al mismo tiempo revisar la confección de unos corpus literarios que se muestran, en ocasiones, limitadores para la promoción de un diálogo transcultural; así las obras literarias para los más jóvenes podrán circular con mayor libertad desde uno a otro lado del océano y se podrá alcanzar en plenitud el sentimiento unitario de «toda la literatura escrita en español».

La reflexión que se promueve desde estas páginas, entonces, gira en torno a la formación lectora y literaria de los futuros docentes, a sus capacidades mediadores para la dinamización de textos en el aula, a la necesidad de descolonizar la literatura infantil y juvenil, y construir así un corpus de lectura diverso capaz de responder a las diferentes transformaciones sociales que vayan cristalizándose en una educación literaria multicultural.
