An irresistible
die-cut journal
with thread-

stitched
features and a wraparound
ribbon "tail"
for lovers of Jellycats, Trolls, and
Ugly Dolls.
This die-cut
journal will follow the form of Ginge

Cat--one of
Donna
Wilson's wildly
popular
imaginary
creatures that until now have only been available in knitted
versions.
Plaintive eyes,

a button nose, and a quirky grin will be rendered in thread to echo the cuddly nature of the textile version. A ribbon marker that also functions as a wraparound tail adds to the animal nature of the product.

Clarkson Potter
An Unsung Cat explores the life and music of jazz saxophonist, Warne Marsh. Safford Chamberlain follows the artist from his start in youth bands like the Hollywood Canteen Kids and The Teen-Agers through his studies under Lennie Tristano, his brilliant playing of the 1950s, his disappearance from public view in the 1960s, his re-emergence in the 1970s, and his belated recognition in the 1980s as one of the finest tenor players of the post-World War II era. Through interviews with the Marsh family and friends, Chamberlain offers an inside view of Marsh's private life, including his struggles with drug abuse. Detailed analysis of outstanding performances complements the personal story, while an extensively researched discography and photographs reveal the public and private face of this unique performer. In addition to the book, Scarecrow is pleased to offer a companion compact disc, released by Storyville Records. The tracks on the CD provide a representative sampling of Marsh's best work, while providing a historical overview of his development, from the beginning track, "Apple Honey," which is a private, low-fidelity tape from an NBC radio broadcast in 1945 of the Hoagy Carmichael Show, to the final track, "Sweet and Lovely," captured months before his death in 1987.

 The ideal gift for a jazz lover who is also crazy for cats!

 Would be ideal for any jazz musician, or lover of 1920's New Orleans 'all that jazz' inspired themes. The cats are playing saxophone, trumpet, violin, piano and double bass so could be a perfect teacher or student appreciation gift for anyone who plays those musical instruments.
 This would be a very cool New Orleans jazz saxophone, trumpet, violin teacher or student appreciation idea. Scribble down your genius tune ideas, lists of favorite jazz songs and artists..or anything else you want. - 7x 10 mid size softcover journal- LINED content- Unique frottis, dedication or inscription page THE BENEFITS OF KEEPING A JOURNAL OR DIARY Journaling or keeping a diary or dot grid journal: This usually involves keeping a daily or, at least regular, record of thoughts, feelings emotions and experiences. Sometimes this is called 'memoir'. When you do this regularly it can be a really great self exploration tool and can really help with things like stress relief, simply by the act of getting it onto paper and out of your head. Reading back your entries can also be a valuable source of self knowledge. Basically it can be your own private version of therapy where you talk out topics of concern to come up with solutions. This is key. The purpose of journalling is not to 'wallow' in negative feelings but to thrash it out so you can come up with positive solutions, even if that solution is just being able to take step back and get some perspective on the issue of problem. One thing that is popular and seems to be very effective to start a gratitude or appreciation journal where you just focus on and contemplate things that you are happy about. This simple practice of refocusing your mind can have really profound effects. There is even some scientific research that indicates a regular journalling practice can help decrease symptoms of asthma, arthritis and general improvement of the immune system.

Cat Playing

Vibraphone Jazz Marimba Journal
 This is the first book to tell the story of the bebop subculture in London's Soho, a subculture that emerged in 1945 and reached its pinnacle in 1950. In an exploration via the intersections of race, class and gender, it shows how bebop identities were constructed and articulated. Combining a wide range of archival research and theory, the book evocatively demonstrates how the scene evolved in Soho's clubs, the fashion that formed around the music, drug usage amongst a contingent of the group, and the moral panic which led to the police raids on the clubs between 1947 and 1950. Thereafter it maps the changes in popular culture in Soho during the 1950s, and argues that the bebop story is an important precedent to the institutional harassment of black-related spaces and culture that continued in the twentieth and twenty-first centuries. This book therefore rewrites the first chapter of the 'classic' subcultural canon, and resets the subcultural clock; requiring us to rethink the periodization and social make-up of British post-war youth subcultures.

The British Union Catalogue of Music Periodicals

The Routledge Companion to Jazz and Gender identifies, defines, and interrogates the construct of gender in all forms of jazz, jazz culture, and education, shaping and transforming the conversation in response to changing cultural and societal norms across the globe. Such interrogation requires consideration of gender from multiple viewpoints, from scholars and artists at various points in their careers. This edited collection of 38 essays gathers the diverse perspectives of contributors from four continents, exploring the nuanced (and at times controversial) construct of gender as it relates to jazz music, in the past and present, in four parts: Historical Perspectives Identity and Culture Society and Education Policy and Advocacy Acknowledging the art form's troubled relationship with gender, contributors seek to define the construct to include all possible definitions—not only female and male—without binary limitations, contextualizing gender and jazz in both place and time. As gender identity becomes an increasingly important consideration in both education and scholarship, The Routledge Companion to Jazz and Gender provides a broad and inclusive resource of research for the academic community, addressing an urgent need to reconcile the construct of gender in jazz in all its forms.

An Unsung Cat
First published in 1998, the aim of this catalogue is to help students, researchers and librarians determine the UK locations of over 2,000 music periodical titles held in public, academic and national libraries. Over 220 libraries in the UK have been surveyed, from St. Austell to Aberdeen, Aberystwyth to Brighton. Each catalogue entry provides detailed information on library holdings, and full bibliographic details of periodical titles, including ISSNs. The main catalogue is preceded by an address list, and by a preface outlining the history of music periodicals in Britain, together with statistical tables.
