Inspired by the real psychology
study

popularized by the New York Times and its "Modern Love" column, this contemporary YA is perfect for fans of Eleanor and Park. Two random strangers. Two secrets. Thirty-six questions to make them fall in love. Hildy and Paul each have their own reasons for joining the university psychology study that asks the simple question: Can love be engineered? The study consists of 36 questions, ranging from "What is your most terrible memory?" to "When did you last sing to yourself?" By the time Hildy and Paul have made it to the end of the questionnaire, they've laughed and cried and lied and thrown things and run away and come back and driven each other almost crazy. They've also each discovered the painful secret the other was trying so hard to hide. But have they fallen in love?

Told in the language of modern romance -- texting, Q&A, IM -- and punctuated by Paul's sketches, this clever high-concept YA is full of humor and heart. As soon as you've finished reading, you'll be searching for your own stranger to ask the 36 questions. Maybe you'll even fall in love. In the explosive finale to the epic romantic saga, Bella has one final choice to make. Should she stay mortal and strengthen her connection to the werewolves, or leave it all behind to become a vampire? When you loved the one who was killing you, it left you no options. How could you run, how could you fight, when doing so would hurt that beloved one? If your life was all you had to give,

how could you not give it? If it was someone you truly loved? To be irrevocably in love with a vampire is both fantasy and nightmare woven into a dangerously heightened reality for Bella Swan. Pulled in one direction by her intense passion for Edward Cullen, and in another by her profound connection to werewolf Jacob Black, a tumultuous year of temptation, loss, and strife have led her to the ultimate turning point. Her imminent choice to either join the dark but seductive world of immortals or to pursue a fully human life has become the thread from which the fates of two tribes hangs. This astonishing, breathlessly anticipated conclusion to the Twilight Saga illuminates the secrets and mysteries of this spellbinding romantic epic. It's here! #1 bestselling author Stephenie Meyer makes a triumphant return to the world of Twilight with the highly anticipated companion, Midnight Sun: the iconic love story of Bella and Edward told from the vampire's point of view. "People do not want to just read Meyer's books; they want to climb inside them and live there." -- Time "A literary phenomenon." -- The New York Times

the visionary
storyteller
Gianni Rodari
about fairy

tales and folk tales and their great advantages in teaching creative storytelling. "Rodari grasped children's need to play with life's rules by using the grammar of their own imaginations. They must be encouraged to question, challenge, destroy, mock, eliminate, generate, and reproduce their own language and meanings through stories that will enable them to narrate their own lives." -- Jack Zipes "I hope this small book," writes renowned children's author Gianni Rodari, "can be useful for all those people who believe it is necessary for the imagination to have a place in education; for all those who trust in the creativity of children; and for all those who know the liberating value of the word." Full of ideas, glosses on fairytales, stories, and wide-ranging activities, including the fantastic binomial, this book changed how creative arts were taught in Italian schools. Translated into English by acclaimed children's historian Jack Zipes and illustrated for the first time ever by Matthew Forsythe, this edition of The Grammar of Fantasy is one to live with and return to for its humor, intelligence, and truly deep understanding of children. A groundbreaking

g pedagogical work that is also a handbook for writers of all ages and kinds, The Grammar of Fantasy gives each of us a playful, practical path to finding our own voice through the power of storytelling. Gianni Rodari (1920-1980) grew up in Northern Italy and wrote hundreds of stories, poems, and songs for children. In 1960, he collaborated with the Education Cooperation

Movement to develop exercises to encourage children's creative and critical thinking abilities. Jack Zipes is a renowned children's historian and folklorist who has written, translated, and edited dozens of books on fairytales. He is a professor at the University of Minnesota. Matthew Forsythe lives in Montreal where he draws and paints for picture books, comics, and animations. The Usborne Big Book of Sea Creatures St. Martin's Press A prize-winning international classic, first published in English in 1993, now with a new foreword by William Boyd. Senza partire non s'arriva, e ogni traguardo si raggiunge con i primi piccoli passi. Questa frase del navigatore solitario Manfred Marktel racchiude in poche, sintetiche parole gran parte della sua filosofia di vita e di viaggio e ci trasmette un prezioso messaggio. Nel suo libro Sono arrivati 600 anni prima di me, ora pubblicato in nuova edizione da Il Frangente, l'autore racconta con lineare semplicità una sua lunga rotta atlantica intrapresa anche nello spirito di verificare effettivamente se i cinesi fossero arrivati ai Caraibi prima di Colombo. Se pure intrigante, non è tuttavia questo il tema centrale del libro, nel quale troviamo invece precise annotazioni nautiche, descrizioni della semplice quotidianità della vita di un navigatore solitario, che restituiscono con vividezza reali ritmi di vita quasi tranquillamente e domestici. Tra un resoconto di navigazione e gustosi racconti di incontri fatti in viaggio, l'autore inserisce riflessioni sul suo stile di navigazione e di vita, che delineano molto bene il suo carattere, ma indicano anche una strada per realizzare i propri sogni. In definitiva, l'autore ci vuole dire che le navigazioni di cui racconta sono alla portata di chiunque ne abbia una chiara consapevolezza e non sono riservate a persone speciali o eccezionalmente dotate. Fish Is Fish Running Press Kids Introduces basic vocabulary through pictures of items in such categories as household
