Gli atti del Convegno Internazionale di Studi "Cinema e identità italiana" (Roma, 28-29 dicembre 2017) mettono in luce la molteplicità delle prospettive con cui può essere affrontato il problema dell'identità nazionale, in un arco temporale che va dai primordi del cinema fino alla contemporaneità. Un gran numero di studiosi di varia età e provenienza si misura con metodologie e punti di vista differenti, intrecciando le dinamiche cinematografiche con la storia culturale del Paese e con il più vasto panorama intermediale.

The Mao Case Vintage Canada
Accoglie i risultati degli studi condotti nell'ambito di tre progetti (Progetto VINUM, Progetto ArcheoVino, Progetto Senarum Vineae) ai quali hanno partecipato, per un confronto sul tema della viticoltura e della produzione del vino, rappresentanti di varie discipline, quali la storia, l'archeologia, la botanica, la storia della tecnologia, la biologia molecolare. I vari interventi ricostruiscono una storia della coltivazione della vite e dell'enologia nel bacino del Mediterraneo e di tutte le attività ad esse connesse, non ultimo l'uso culturale del vino, con indagini più articolate per le aree toscane e laziali e apportano elementi utili ad approfondire l'evoluzione storica del paesaggio e delle singole componenti dell'ambiente.

Forty Days Without Shadow Berghahn Books

Bright red terra sigillata pots dating to the first three centuries CE can be found throughout the Western Roman provinces. The pots' widespread distribution and recognisability make them key evidence in the effort to reconstruct the Roman Empire's economy and society. Drawing on recent ideas in material culture, this book asks a radically new question: what was it about the pots themselves that allowed them to travel so widely and be integrated so quickly into a range of contexts and practices? To answer this question, Van Oyen offers a fresh analysis in which objects are no longer passive props, but rather they actively shape historical trajectories.

Basic Books

Chief Inspector Chen Cao of the Shanghai Police Department is the head of the Special Case group and is often put in charge of those cases that are considered politically "sensitive" since, as a rising party cadre, he's regarded by many as reliable. But Inspector Chen, though a poet by inclination and avocation, takes his job as a policeman very seriously, despite the pressures put upon him from within and without, and is unwilling to compromise his principles as a policeman in favor of political expedience. However, after the new Minister of Public Security insists that Chen personally take on a 'special assignment', an investigation already begun by Internal Security, he may no longer be able to resist those pressures. The party, increasingly leery of international embarrassment, is unhappy about two recent books that place Mao in a bad light. Now, Jiao, the granddaughter of an actress who was likely one of Mao's mistresses - a woman suspected of being Mao's own granddaughter - has recently quit her job, moved into a luxury apartment, and, without any visible means of support, become a part of a new social set centered around the remnants of pre-Communist Shanghai society. What they fear is that, somehow, she has inherited some artifact or material related to Mao that will, when made public, prove embarrassing. Even though there is no evidence that such even exists, Chen has been charged to infiltrate her social circle, determine if the feared material exists and, if it does, retrieve it quietly. And in only a few days - because if he can't resolve this 'Mao case' within the deadline, the party will resort to harsher, more deadly means.

Everything started from that day. The memory of 31 August 1969 has been at the back of Commissario Michele Balistreri's mind for over four decades. It was not only the day that preceded Colonel Muammar Gaddafi's seizure of power in Balistreri's birthplace of Libya, drastically altering his and his country's destiny, but that on which his beloved mother Natalia fell to her death, and the resulting suicide verdict that Balistreri - now Head of Homicide in Rome - has always suspected to be a flagrant cover-up for her murder. The memory of 23 July 2006 has been at the front of investigative journalist Linda Nardi's mind for the past five years. Ever since her and Balistreri together thwarted a phantom-like killer stalking Rome, Nardi has been intent on shedding further light on the Vatican Bank's shadowy involvement in the abominations uncovered that summer. But now Linda will find her attention diverted to an equally irresistible assignment: the collapse of Colonel Gaddafi's forty-two year dictatorship. The Memory of Evil is the earth-shattering finale to Roberto Costantini's internationally bestselling trilogy, in which one woman will encounter a long-entombed truth in the rubble of Gaddafi's Tripoli: unearthing a conspiracy neither she, nor the man it was designed to protect, will ever be able to erase from their minds.

Cancro: l'alleanza terapeutica. Percorsi di cura, tra natura e scienza Nordic Council of Ministers

In 1970s Italy, after the decline of the Spaghetti Western, crime films became the most popular, profitable and controversial genre. In a country plagued with violence, political tensions and armed struggle, these films managed to capture the anxiety and anger of the times in their tales of tough cops, ruthless criminals and urban paranoia. Recent years have seen renewed critical interest in the genre, thanks in part to such illustrious fans as Quentin Tarantino. This book examines all of the 220+ crime films produced in Italy between 1968 and 1980, the period when the genre first appeared and grew to its peak. Entries include a complete cast and crew list, home video releases, a plot summary and the author's own analysis. Excerpts from a variety of sources are included: academic texts, contemporary reviews, and interviews with filmmakers, scriptwriters and actors. There are many onset stills and film posters.

Racchiusa nell'angusta etichetta del realismo, contrapposto in più occasioni a un non meglio precisato «cinema di invenzione», la poetica di Francesco Rosi rinvia a una storia sola: quella di un Paese, l'Italia del secondo dopoguerra, segnato da crimini, misfatti e misteri ancora oggi indecifrabili. Film come Le mani sulla città, Salvatore Giuliano, Il caso Mattei e Cadaveri eccellenti appaiono ancora oggi esempi insuperati di un cinema al contempo poetico e politico, dove la ricerca espressiva si coniuga con l'impegno civile. I saggi contenuti nel presente volume, che raccoglie gli atti del convegno di studi svoltosi a Verona nel 2017, cercano di offrire nuove strade di lettura per un'opera che, come dimostrano i contributi della terza sezione, in tre occasioni ha trascorso i confini dello schermo per valicare quelli del palcoscenico.

Archeologia della vite e del vino in Toscana e nel Lazio. Dalle tecniche dell'indagine archeologica alle prospettive della biologia molecolare Viella Libreria Editrice

This Palgrave Handbook offers the first international comparative study into the efficiency of the industrial organization of the global wine industry. Looking at several important vineyards of the main wine countries, the contributors analyze differences in implementation and articulation of three key stages: grape production, wine making and distribution (marketing, selling and logistics). By examining regulations, organization theory, industry organizational efficiency and vertical integration, up to date strategies in the sector are presented and appraised. Which models are most efficient? What are the most relevant factors for optimal performance? How do reputation and governance impact the industry? Should different models co-exist within the wine countries for global success? This comprehensive volume is essential reading for students, researchers and professionals in the wine industry. La storia e le memorie della nostra Repubblica necessitano di narrazioni e linguaggi capaci di coinvolgere cittadini di diverse generazioni nella riappropriazione di un percorso comune. Aldo Moro (1916-1978) fu tra i protagonisti più autorevoli e discussi, un leader e uno statista che faceva politica attraverso la cultura, nello sviluppo di una consapevole pedagogia civile. All'iniziale concentrazione sul "caso Moro" e sulla sua morte violenta al culmine della stagione terroristica, sta seguendo una riconsiderazione della sua figura complessiva, che permette di evidenziare le connessioni molteplici tra la biografia politica e morale dello statista pugliese e le vicende dell'Italia repubblicana. I contributi compresi nel volume contemplano piani diversi: la conoscenza dei risultati più accreditati degli studi storici con l'attenzione ad alcuni degli snodi più problematici ed attuali di questa "storia", nonché ai linguaggi tramite cui la figura di Moro - uomo e intellettuale, leader politico e statista - è entrata nell'immaginario repubblicano (tramite la televisione e il cinema, le inchieste parlamentari e le indagini processuali, la toponomastica urbana e le rappresentazioni simbolico-rituali).

Si può ancora parlare di "cinema d'impegno" in epoca post-moderna? Qual è il ruolo di questo cinema nell'età della disgregazione delle forme di partecipazione politica tradizionali? Il volume affronta questi temi a partire da una riflessione più generale intorno al concetto d'impegno civile, in quanto fenomeno specifico della cultura italiana, e in quanto veicolo di capitali simbolico-culturali riconoscibili. I contributi qui raccolti analizzano da diverse angolature le contingenze produttive, formali ed estetiche, che permettono ancora oggi al cinema di ritenersi impegnato e attivare processi di legittimazione del suo pubblico, delle sue istituzioni, delle sue strutture industriali.

From such films as La Dolce Vita and Bicycle Thieves to Cinema Paradiso and Dear Diary, Italian cinema has provided striking images of Italy as a nation and a people. In the first comprehensive study of Italian cinema from 1886-1996, Pierre Sorlin explores the changing relationship of Italian cinema and Italian society and asks whether the national cinema really does represent Italian interests and culture.

The Miller's Dance Max Crime

Turn-of-the-century Detective Isaac Bell takes on the upstart leader of a vicious crime organization in this novel in the #1 New York Times–bestselling series. It is 1906, and in New York City, the Italian crime group known as the Black Hand is on a spree: kidnapping, extortion, arson. They like to take the oldest tricks and add dynamite. When a coalition of the Black Hand's victims hire out the Van Dorn agency to protect their businesses, their reputations, and their families, Detective Isaac Bell forms a crack squad and begins scouring the city for clues. And then he spots a familiar face. The stakes grow ever-higher, with the Black Hand becoming more ambitious, and their targets more political. If Bell can't determine the role played by the face from his past, the next life lost could be one of the most powerful men in the nation.

Francesco Rosi. Il cinema e oltre Springer

The international award-winning, bestselling phenomenon, now available in English for the first time. Tomorrow, the sun will rise for the first time in 40 days. Thirty minutes of daylight will herald the end of the polar night in Kautokeino, a small village in northern Norway, home to the indigenous Sami people. But in the last hours of darkness, a precious artifact is stolen: an ancient Sami drum. The most important piece in the museum's collection, it was due to go on tour with a UN exhibition in a few short weeks. Hours later, a man is murdered. Mattis, one of the last Sami reindeer herders, is found dead in his gumpy. Are the two crimes connected? In a town fraught with tension-between the indigenous Samis fighting to keep their culture alive, the ultra-Lutheran Scandinavian colonists concerned with propagating their own religion, and the greedy geologists eager to mine the region's ore deposits--it falls to two local police officers to solve the crimes. Klemet Nango, an experienced Sami officer, and Nina Nansen, his much younger partner from the south of Norway, must find the perpetrators before it's too late... THIS EDITION INCLUDES A READING GROUP GUIDE

The second book in the Inspector Chen investigations Inspector Chen's mentor in the Shanghai Police Bureau has assigned him to escort US Marshal Catherine Rohn. Her mission is to bring Wen, the wife of a witness in an important criminal trial, to the United States. Inspector Rohn is already en route when Chen learns that Wen has unaccountably vanished from her village in Fujian. Or is this just what he is supposed to believe? Chen resents his role; he would rather investigate the triad killing in Shanghai's beautiful Bund Park. Li insists that saving face with Inspector Rohn takes priority. So Chen Cao, the ambitious son of a father who imbued him with Confucian precepts, must tread warily as he tries once again to be a good cop, a good man and also a loyal Party member.

Grazie al successo di Romanzo Criminale e Suburra, anche il malaffare romano ha potuto godere di una particolare attenzione internazionale, contribuendo al trionfo della crime novel italiana. Ma in che modo film, documentari, fiction e serie televisive, a partire dal poliziesco anni Settanta fino alle più recenti produzioni, hanno saputo ritrarre e raccontare l'efferata violenza nella Capitale? Questo libro mira a ricostruire la memoria criminale di Roma individuando nelle diverse forme di rappresentazione analizzate non solo l'identità specifica del fenomeno banditesco e gangsteristico sviluppatosi nella metropoli, ma anche le trasformazioni del tessuto urbano capitolino compiute nel corso delle epoche.
