In early nineteenth-century America, a woman takes flight to protect a young boy—but love is about to catch up to her. Bethany Cole and her young charge, Peeto, are running for their lives, following the raging waters of the Mississippi to freedom, escaping the ruthless Luke Randall, Peeto's father. When Luke finds Bethany and his son gone, he immediately vows to track down the lovely "kidnapper." However, he isn't counting on Bethany's strength of will and determination. As she braves crossing the river and traversing the lawless lands of the frontier, Bethany shows him just what she's made of. Now, Luke finds his resolve weakening in the face of Bethany's beauty. She taunts and tantalizes him . . . but remains just out of reach, as a supreme battle of wills turns into a sweetly passionate surrender for the two adversaries. They began as enemies, but couldn't defy the overwhelming need that brought them together.

What shapes the cultural, political and ideological values of young people living in Southeastern Europe? Which identities matter to them? How are their values changing, and how can they be changed? Who is changing them? Europe's periphery is the testing ground for the success of European values and identities. The future stability and political coherence of the Union will be determined in large measure by identity issues in this region. This book examines the ways in which ethnic and national values and identities have been surpassed as the overriding focus in the lives of the region's youth. Employing bottom-up, ethnographic, and interview-based approaches, it explores when and where ethnic and national identification processes become salient. Using intra-national and international comparisons of youth populations of Albania, Bosnia-Herzegovina, Croatia, Macedonia, Montenegro, and Serbia, contributors uncover the mechanisms by which ethnic identities are evoked, reproduced and challenged. In addition to exploring political, regional cultural generational and class identities, the contributors examine wider questions of European unity. This volume offers a corrective to previous thinking about youth ethnic identities and will prove useful to scholars in political science and sociology studying issues of ethnic and national identities and nationalism, as well as youth cultures and identities.

Spiritual Warfare Merehurst Limited
 A Note from Jill Briscoe Dear Friends,
 We're living in a war zone, and that's why we've devoted this book to "spiritual warfare." But we who love the Lord have a secret weapon. It must be a "secret weapon" because many Christians don't seem to know about it, or if they do, they don't bother using it. However, it is certainly no secret to the devil. That weapon is prayer. As the little couplet says: "The devil trembles when he sees the weakest saint upon his knees." The basis of effective prayer is helplessness. When we are in the heat of battle, we must quickly come to "wits' end corner" and cry out to God. It is in prayer that we can talk to God and "complain" about the devil doing his worst to us--and it is in prayer that we will be reminded that Jesus will do His best for us. When we are on our faces before God, we can confess the sins we have committed that have the devil believing he rules our lives. And then we can take the Sword of the Spirit which is the Word of God (Eph. 6:17) and tell that old serpent, "sin shall not be my master" (Rom. 6:14). Is the devil using "the world" to make you discontent? Read Philippians 4:12 and remember "the content of contentment" is Christ. Is the devil using your flesh to bring you down? Are you tempted to be ungrateful to your husband, disloyal to your leaders, or give into sinful appetites? "Resist the devil, and he will flee from you" (James 4:7). In the power of the Holy Spirit, just say no! As Satan's footsteps dog you, remind him in a loud voice, "God's fingerprints are all over my life, because prayer puts them there." Run to God and don't give up. Always remember the crib, the cross, and the crown, and believe what you believe! The devil may be allowed to touch everything you have, but God will never allow him to touch anything you are (see Job 1:12). God rules, not Satan. He is the Prince of the power of the air; Jesus is the King of Kings and Lord of Lords, Prince of all Princes. So make the horrible creature sick to his horrible stomach, and hide in God, and let the Lord finish him off. May we, women in ministry, exhort each other in the immortal words of Corrie ten Boom: "Keep on kicking the devil" or short, KOKD! Enjoying His Victory, Jill Briscoe

The perfect wedding cake is the crowning glory of any wedding day. Contemporary Wedding Cakes, written by two top wedding cake designers, explores the myriad of options that are open to brides and grooms-to-be.

Divided into three sections, this book caters to all different types of weddings. Nadene Hurst writes about royal-iced wedding cake designs ranging from stylized collars and panel work to special techniques such as stringwork, brush embroidery, stenciling and airbrushing.

Julie Springall focuses on sugarpaste wedding cakes, offering wonderful and distinctly different ideas, ranging from an Art Nouveau design to New England folk art. Both authors contribute to the third section, which explores the potential of American-style stacked cakes.

Each section contains eight cakes, explaining the individual techniques required to recreate the stunning designs. The step-by-step photographs and the clear, informative text make this book an ideal tool for cake decorators.

Whether you are seeking inspiration for new designs or helping brides and grooms select a cake, this book will be an invaluable and timeless source of reference. The ultimate companion for brides and grooms-to-be, and cake decorators alike, this book offers a wealth of ideas that will inspire you and ensure your dream wedding cake can become a reality.
