Finding Your Way Back to God Participant's Guide Cowley Publications

The Bible is chock-full of Promises. There are Promises for healing, for prosperity, for business success, for instruction, for guidance, for protection, and much, much more. God has prepared solutions for every problem and situation that comes your way. Just as importantly, he has prepared Pathways to guide you to the realization of his promised gifts. Those Pathways which were set in place before the foundation of the world will lead you out of your problems and situations. They will direct you to the overcoming life he wants and expects you to achieve. Several years ago, Author Larry Tate began writing short articles, primarily for his own enjoyment. Eventually, he turned to writing books. Larry's desire is to encourage others to live a positive and fulfilled life, and to listen to their innermost yearnings to know God. Previous books written by Larry are: Conversations with a Stranger, The Journey, Shadow Truth and Righting Wrongs. Larry and his wife, Ginger, have been married for over forty-one years and enjoy time spent with their children and grandchildren.

Finding a Loving God in the Midst of Grief Nicolas-Hays, Inc.

Do you feel lost in a difficult season, wondering, "GOD, WHERE ARE YOU?!" Perhaps you heard God speak, but now He seems silent. Maybe you moved forward in faith, but now His presence is nowhere to be found. Welcome to the wilderness—the place between receiving a promise from God and seeing it come to pass. But here's the good news—this is no purposeless wasteland. God uses the wilderness to prepare and equip you for your destiny—that is, if you navigate it correctly. Contrary to what many may think, getting through this season isn't just a matter of waiting on God. You have a part to play in navigating through it. A big one. And if you don't want to waste time wandering in circles, it's important to learn what that is. In this eye-opening book, best-selling author John Bevere equips you with key biblical insights and profound stories that will help you navigate your dry or difficult seasons and step into all that God has for you. Includes discussion questions for group study

Finding Your Way through Loneliness Harvest House Publishers

Whether through the death of a loved one, divorce or estrangement in a marriage, or by being a single person in a world of couples and families, loneliness eventually comes to us all. Elisabeth Elliot lost her first husband to murder in the South American jungle and her second to the ravages of cancer. She has felt the deep pain of loss. In The Path of Loneliness, Elliot gives hope to the lonely through tender reflections on God's love for us and his plans to bless us. She tackles this difficult topic with grace and faith, showing readers how to make peace with loneliness and grow through it.

The God of All Comfort Bible Study Guide Zondervan

Your best days are ahead of you, not behind you. It may not always seem like it, look like it, or feel like it—but it's true. Bible teacher, bestselling author, and activist Christine Caine wants to see you step into a life that is greater than you could ever hope, think, or imagine - even when things are hard. In How Did I Get Here?, Christine invites us to press on - past our fears, past our mistakes, past our insecurities, past our comfort zones, past whatever is holding us back - to reach for more of Jesus. With refreshing candor, How Did I Get Here? will help you: Discover 9 habits that can keep you anchored in our rapidly changing world Build the strength and confidence to go after your purpose, even in the face of setbacks Develop the faith to keep following Jesus, even when you can't see exactly where He is taking you Learn how to trust God even through seasons of doubt and uncertainty Break through disappointment and move forward with a fresh hope for the future Find a renewed passion to keep going when everything in you wants to give up We have all faced struggles and times of uncertainty, moments which draw us closer to God. Christine empowers readers to actively seek God through the most difficult of situations, trusting He is able to make a way, even when it seems heavy and like there is no hope. "By the last chapter I was covered in goosebumps. Cheering, crying and moved into a new level of commitment to not letting my faith drift by doing nothing." -Shirley, Amazon review "Christine's heart and wisdom in writing this book help me set my mind to trust the Lord with greater abandon, to see the ways I will drift from my faith and course-correct when needed. She encourages us to live expectantly for the future and also presently joyfully as we wait." - Ines Amazon review

A Crease in the Map Thomas Nelson

In this new study, veteran pastors Dan Cash and Bill Griffith tackle the reality of the changing Christian church in a rapidly shifting culture by turning to Scripture to explore eight paradigm shifts in the history of Christ's gospel and its birth of the church. Beginning with Jesus' parable of the new wineskins for new wine, Cash and Griffith suggest that God is inviting today's church leaders to consider new ways of being the Body of Christ in the world. Perfect for an 8-week study in small groups or Bible studies, the chapters identify a key shift in the New Testament narrative and a related dynamic of change with its relevance for local congregations and their leaders.

Finding Your Way Multnomah

In her powerfully refreshing way, Jennifer offers insight into the church from her unique perspective of growing up as a pastor's kid. She shares her own story of finding herself disengaging from the family of God as she wrestled with her own questions of who God really was, despite being taught about him as a child. You will discover practical ways you can find connection and belonging in the family and finding your way home if you've been gone for a while.

Promises and Pathways - Finding Your Way to God's Promised Gifts Harper Collins

Life can be difficult. But does God care? Don Moen has learned to lean on God's promises in good times as well as bad and he says, "You can still trust Him." "A person would need to look a long time to find a purer heart and voice than those of Don Moen." —Max Lucado In his new memoir featuring snapshots from his life and career, Don shares heartfelt stories of gentle comfort for people looking for answers. Don asserts, that God has not forgotten us even when... We face a job loss We go through an unexpected divorce We receive a bad report from the doctor We face the death of a loved one As a beloved songwriter and worship leader, Don Moen is the author of classic songs like "Thank you, Lord" and "God Will Make a Way"—the inspiration for this book. He knows what it means to feel anxious, worried, and down. And he knows what it means to persevere and see a new day. If you enjoy the encouraging style of Max Lucado, and if you find comfort in the books of Gary Chapman, then you will love reading God Will Make a Way, a new release from Thomas Nelson.

Some people receive a call to serve God at a very early age.

Others live many decades of their life before they turn to religion and to God. Idealistic as the author was from his youth, he lived the life of an average American boy and young man until the events of his life turned him in the direction of becoming a rabbi. Some of these experiences, spelled out in brief vignettes, are included in this volume, the death of his grandfather when he was five years old, a violent antisemitic confrontation at age eight, an interracial experience on a trolley car in 1932, in Virginia. Other vignettes describe facing death by a drunken soldier, a physical assault by a colonel angered by his teaching of racial equality as an Information and Education Specialist in the Army, a mystical encounter with nature, preaching in a Baptist church as an assistant to a Jewish Chaplain in World War II. The range of incidents is wide indeed. The reader is carried through five years of college, including a year in law school (abruptly halted by Pearl Harbor) and through four years in the U.S. Army. The reader will identify with the searchings of the young boy and young man for a life of purpose. These searchings ultimately led him to choose a lifetime of service to God.

Can I Find My Way Back to God? WestBow Press

Revelations of God was written for people who are interested in finding and knowing God. Through an ancient spiritual practice called Lectio Divina, or "sacred reading," you'll have a powerful way of connecting with God and learning to hear His voice. One of the best ways to do that is to read the teachings of Jesus in the New Testament. As the living "Word" of God, Jesus' example of love and healing shows us the heart of God. Jesus says, "Those who have heard me have heard the Father," (John 14:7-10). The book is organized in three sections: - WHO IS GOD? - WHAT CAN WE DO TO GROW IN FAITH? - HOW WILL OUR LIVES CHANGE? There is one short chapter with a journal entry for each of the 52 weeks in a year, giving the reader time to digest and apply insights during that week. Each chapter includes: - Opening message - Supporting scripture - Lectio Divina meditation - Journal questions and notes page Through the Lectio Divina practice, you may experience the radical love of God and have your own revelations - ultimately transforming your heart and mind with renewed purpose, direction and peace. "This means that anyone who belongs to Christ has become a new person. The old life is gone; a new life has begun!" (2 Corinthians 5:17 NLT)

The Path of Loneliness Harper Collins

For years, many Christians have felt lost and, in some cases, hopeless despite their profession that led to salvation. This wilderness experience has challenged the faith of many who follow Christ and have become a topic of transparent conversation. The question of "where is God?" is at the forefront as if God is lost or absent. In the midst of the current culture, political chaos and a global pandemic, many are seeking answers; they are seeking God. A Crease in the Map: Finding Your Way in God, provides truths and a practical path to find your way in God and to eliminate the lie of hopelessness. It challenges the reader to take a closer look from within and to take steps to move forward in reconnecting to God.

Finding a Job God's Way Wm. B. Eerdmans Publishing

In efforts to understand the human being, our history, and our future, the story takes the reader through three different continents, gleaning cultural well-being and malaise of different races. The book highlights the common bond between all human races, while exploring reasons for the perceived outer differences our modern world hurtles forward, driven as it is by powerful technological engines of change, characterized by an obsessive and often idolatrous worship of intelligence, ruminative men and women all around the world ponder in the silence of their soul the fate of humanity. In the West, depression, suicide, incomprehensible mass shootings and myriad psychological disorders litter our cultural landscape, while abject poverty ravage developing nations. We have become highly intelligent beings that cannot solve our problems, yet we inhabit a natural world created out of wisdom and much of that wisdom is not reflected in our thoughts and lifestyle. Modern man's obsession with intelligence and the material world has left him a stranger to spiritual things and wisdom. Consequently, humanity is left vulnerable to inexplicable and undiagnosed suffering. In an attempt to diagnose what ails modern man, this book presents a convincing and thought-provoking argument that we have forgotten who we are, and in so doing, have built a world terribly out of order with our divine nature. By walking the reader through my Nigerian upbringing and subsequent arrival in the West, I reveal some timeless wisdom that I believe can serve as a cure for some of the things that trouble us today. This inimitable book lights a path directing us again to who we truly are. It is a timely and deft clarion call to all of us. Finding Your Way to Heaven Without a Smartphone is a mixture of autobiography, cultural inquiry and philosophy. Joseph Obidiegwu, an Igbo from Nigeria, has lived on three continents. He has the necessary perspective and wisdom to look at the world's masquerade from different angles. There is no romanticization of traditional African village life, nor is there blind acceptance of the hectic to and fro of modern life on planet Smartphone. Finding Your Place in God's Great Story for Kids Tate Publishing Your time in seminary can be a period of great blessing and adventure, on the one hand, but also a time of great confusion and doubt, on the other. How do you navigate the challenges, questions, and even frustrations of seminary life? Am you the only one who is confused in your classes or struggling with what you believe? What does all this theological stuff have to do with serving Christ? Finding Your Way was written to help you with these questions and perhaps with others that you didn't even know you had. This little book will help you see that seminary education is not a hoop to jump through or a burden to bear on the way to real ministry. Rather, your theological education is an important part of your vocation and spiritual formation now and for your future service. To this end, this book serves as a guide to the ins and outs of seminary life, to fostering a loving relationship with the church, and to developing spiritual habits that will bless you throughout your ministry.

God Will Make a Way Wipf and Stock Publishers

Schlafer's book is an adventure in homiletical spirituality and imagination. It leads us through reflection and practical exercises to deepen our self-awareness as preachers. These exercises allow us to discern whether we are poets, storytellers, or essayists; discover our preaching "parents" and mentors, and develop a preaching style that avoids rigidity and self-preoccupation. Developed in workshops and conferences around the country, Your Way with God's Word can also be used in diverse settings and groups, including homiletical workshops, sermon reflection groups in the parish, and preaching colleagues groups. The introduction to the book gives numerous practical suggestions for its use. As a personal preaching resource, this book is also a powerful aid to prayer and spirituality.

The God of the Way Revell

After your faith has fractured, let what takes its place be the real thing . . . at last. Somewhere along the way, the Christianity you knew began to crumble. You began to suspect your faith was misplaced. Disillusionment set in. Churches hurt you. Their people failed you. Christian institutions were exposed as fake. And in it all, God was silent. Is He gone? Or is God really there, waiting for you to find Him instead of the counterfeits? If you're walking this difficult spiritual path, Lina Abujamra understands you. After experiencing the near deconstruction of her own faith, Lina had to rebuild something more solid when the faith she once knew let her down. With her diagnostic style that comes from her training as an ER doc, Lina helps you grapple with questions like: Where is God in my pain? Is this how Christians are supposed to act? Why did my story end up this way? Is this the normal Christian life? Why is it so hard for Christians to love? Let Fractured Faith help you find your way back to God. You just might discover that the real God has been waiting for you all along.
