Philippians: A Participatory Study Guide is the sixth volume in the Participatory Study Series. From beginning to end, the student is invited to absorb the text and allow God's message to change her or his life. At the same time, it maintains the series standard of providing a guide that takes account of current biblical scholarship and helps the student examine the text critically while also listening to and being guided by the Holy Spirit. This guide contains eight lessons suitable for use by an individual student, but best used in a small group. The lessons are clearly written so that a laity-led class or small group can use them to advantage. In addition, there is a guide to using the book that provides insights into Bible study in general, and two appendices, one outlining the process of Bible study and one listing and describing useful resources. Each lesson includes prayers, spiritual exercises, thought questions, and theological reflection. These are designed to help students learn to see the text in a new way and to realize their full potential through the power of the Holy Spirit. This book will not only impact your knowledge of scripture; it will change the way you pray, live, witness, and relate to your community of faith and the world.

Prayer is our vehicle for co-creating with the Divine who bestowed upon us the power to create through our thoughts. We are natural born miracle workers; however, this human experience has taught us otherwise. "A Course in Miracles" states, "Miracles occur naturally as expressions of love. They are performed by those who temporarily have more for those who temporarily have less." That teaching is the premise of this prayer book. Prayer is intentional thought. Miracles are the outcome. Lao Tzu, the father of Taoism, taught, "Watch your thoughts; they become words. Watch your words; they become actions. Watch your actions; they become habits. Watch your habits; they become your character. Watch your character; it becomes your destiny." Use this book to create your destiny and perform miracles. Peace is possible, and it will take a miracle.

"To everything there is a season. A time for every purpose under heaven...." The preacher summed it up. "A time to love, and a time to hate; A time of war, and a time of peace". (Ecclesiastes 3: 1 - 8). Unfortunately, the dragon and his institutions on earth have no respect for this word of God neither do they have regard for peace and the rule of engagement in the Kingdom war. The dragon is a consistent, restless fighter and a very stubborn foe too. Therefore, the people of God have no choice than to draw the sword of fire in the universal power of Christ for battles day and night until the Lord returns. People in restive polity or places of the earth where diverse battles, both visible and invisible are ravaging the lives of men, need to migrate into the universal power of Christ. It is the spiritual hydrogen bomb carried by the redeemed anywhere in the world. It is the Divine Supernatural armour given to deal with enemies who are operating at the level of demonic supernatural including the ruler of demons himself. Heaven rejoices because true freedom, liberty and power have come to the people God world-wide. Thus, the principles of spiritual warfare presented in this book leads everyone into perpetual victory and this put an end to all cries of powerlessness in Christendom! Nevertheless, it is important that everyone obtain and read volume 1 & 2 of this book with a view to gaining excellent understanding of the forces behind the battles of life. Thereafter, it is necessary to master the winning principles before migrating into the unchallengeable, triumphant universal power of Christ. Then, you will testify that the era of powerless Christianity is over!

Contemplative prayer is a way of saying yes to God's transformative presence. Centering Prayer for Everyone is the most welcoming and accessible guide to Christian contemplative practice available. Focusing on five practices—lectio divina, visio divina, walking meditation, chanting the Psalms, and the silent practice of centering prayer—this practical guide collects in one volume everything needed to learn these practices, including concise instructions, readings, and programs. Clearly formatted so that instructions and programs are easy to find at a glance, Centering Prayer for Everyone can inspire beginners to enter the practices immediately and includes detailed instructions for starting and facilitating both in-person and digital prayer groups. This inclusive handbook explicitly welcomes everyone to these practices, whatever their beliefs or doubts, including Christians, meditators from other traditions, twelve-step members, and anyone filled with longing for spiritual transformation and connection with God. A short method of prayer, and Spiritual torrents, tr. by A.W. Marston Doubleday Religion We live in a world of noise. Everywhere we go, we hear sounds that compete for our minds and hearts. Listening to God requires a deliberate choice to shut out the chaos around us and focus our thoughts. Listen, by Rueben P. Job, is a 40-day experience created to offer help to those new to prayer, those with a daily prayer routine, and those whose lives seem too busy to pray. With a focus on listening prayer and prayer as a two-way conversation, the experience will assist individuals and groups in building and deepening a personal prayer practice and spiritual discernment. As we learn to listen, we find a new depth and fulfillment in our relationship with God and a new experience of God as guide and companion in our lives. The daily prayer pattern includes an invitation, silence, Bible reading, a story, guided time for reflecting and listening, and practical help for developing six specific prayer practices. Listen is perfect for use by individuals, small groups, or congregations during Lent, Easter, or any time of year.

New Patterns for Worship (paperback) Good Press "There is only one way to perfection and that is to pray; if anyone points in another direction then they are deceiving you." ~ Saint Teresa of Ávila If we want to become the people God made us to be, we need to set aside time every day for prayer. It sounds simple enough, but we often allow distractions, temptations, and our busy lives to keep us from daily prayer. And what is prayer? Prayer is our "no" to self and "yes" to God. Prayer is the place where we freely choose to receive God's love. As we daily try to raise our minds and hearts to God, giving our time to be present with him, God gives us the love that alone can transform us into his image and likeness. In How to Pray: A Practical Guide to the Spiritual Life, spiritual theologian David Torckington offers everyday guidance for entering more deeply into prayer, whether you are a beginner or looking to go deeper in your prayer life. The forty short, easy-to-read chapters in this guide can be read as a devotional, for meditation, or alongside Sacred Scripture. Through prayer, our soul becomes like a lightning rod allowing the Holy Spirit to enter our hearts. The more regularly and the more persistently we pray, the more we are changed.

God created man to fulfill his purpose on earth. But today, the cemetery is full of unfulfilled destinies, cut short in the prime of their life and as a result, they could not fulfill the original purpose of God for their life. Premature death is now frequent, even among believers. I am happy to tell you that every believer can claim victory over untimely death. Long life is one of God's covenant rights for us. Are you ready to live? Do you want to fulfill your days after the orders of our covenant fathers in the Old Testament, who lived for many years on the earth? If your answer is capital YES. Then, this book is for you. This book will show you the top secret of long life, and reveal to you how you can avoid, and defeat the spirit of premature death. Get this book, and you will set yourself, free from the fear of premature death. Long life is your heritage!

A Short Guide to Praying as a Family
Our Sunday Visitor

You've undoubtedly heard the expression "time heals all wounds." Unfortunately, it isn't true. As many pastors and counselors know, people still carry hurts from thirty or forty years ago. The truth is, time often makes things worse. Wounds that are left untended fester and spread infection throughout your entire body. Time only extends the pain if the problem isn't dealt with.

Your First Step to Celebrate Recovery introduces you to a biblical and balanced program that has helped nearly a million people overcome their hurts, hang-ups, and habits. Based on the actual words of Jesus found in the Sermon on the Mount rather than psychological theory, the Celebrate Recovery program has helped people for over 20 years to grow toward full Christ-like maturity. Author and founder John Baker tells the true story of how Celebrate Recovery became one of the largest Christ-centered recovery programs in history. Baker will help you discover how God's love, truth, grace and forgiveness can bring healing into your life.
