The Gratitude Journal for

Muslim Women; Start With Alhamdulillah, has been designed by a Muslimah for Muslimah. Every day, we are too busy balancing life, family, children, and work. This leaves a very small portion of our time being alone with our Rabb. Often time, the hectic lifestyle turns ibadaah into routines. We don't feel as connected with Allah as we did before all the responsibilities kick in. Sometimes, we just need to stop and breath. And smile and enjoy the moment. But how can we do this with all the chaos around us? By practicing gratitude journaling, starting with saying 'Alhamdulillah' every day! "Showing gratitude to the One who created you is a powerful thing. It gives you a sense of balance and draws good into your life." ~ Mufti Ismail Menk your heart, something softens, breaks, and is subtly reborn. That he wrote the words seven hundred years ago in a medieval Persian world that bears little resemblance to ours makes their uncanny resonance to us today just that much more remarkable. Ever since the dawn of human life on this planet, Man has always sought to understand Nature, his own place in the scheme of Creation and the purpose of Life itself. In this quest for Truth, spanning many centuries and diverse civilizations, organized religion has shaped human life and determined to a large extent, the course of history. While some religions have been based on books, claimed by their adherents to be divinely inspired, others have relied solely on human experience. Al-Qur'an, the main source of the Islamic faith, is a book believed by Muslims, to be of completely Divine origin. Muslims also believe that it contains Divine guidance for all humankind. Since the message of the Qur'an is believed to be for all times, it should be relevant to

However, when reporters wanted to examine the base of the tank of water where he claimed to have performed this "miraculous" feat, he refused to let them do so.
