In an irresistible invitation to lighten up, look around, and live an unscripted life, a master of the art of improvisation explains how to adopt the attitudes and techniques used by generations of musicians and actors. Let's face it: Life is something we all make up as we go along. No matter how carefully we formulate a “script,” it is bound to change when we interact with people with scripts of their own. Improv Wisdom shows how to apply the maxims of improvisational theater to real-life challenges—whether it’s dealing with a demanding boss, a tired child, or one of life’s never-ending surprises. Patricia Madson distills thirty years of experience into thirteen simple strategies, including “Say Yes,” “Start Anywhere,” “Face the Facts,” and “Make Mistakes, Please,” helping readers to loosen up, think on their feet, and take on everything life has to offer with skill, chutzpah, and a sense of humor.

TRAA is publishing this guide as a resource for light duty operators working in the towing and recovery industry. Additionally, this guide may be used a study guide to prepare for the TROCP(tm) Level 1 - Light Duty certification exam available at www.towcert.com. As a professional certification program, the Towing & Recovery Operator Certification Program(tm) (TROCP(tm)) is intended to measure certain basic knowledge, skills, and competencies that have been deemed appropriate for those employed as light duty tow truck operators. Participants must demonstrate that they meet these predetermined standards by successfully completing the corresponding assessment. As the "voice of America's towing industry" the Towing and Recovery Association of America, Inc. ® (TRAA) has created this resource guide to define the basic towing services, skills, topics, and procedures that should be known by a light duty tow truck operator within the United States. For the purposes of this guide, a light duty tow truck operator is defined as a person capable of executing the proper and safe towing and recovery of vehicles under 10,001 GVWR and related services. These materials are intended for educational purposes only.

First published in 1999, this book examines the construction of new political, economic and mental borders in post-Cold War Europe. Various national and regional settings are analyzed along the old East-West divide. In post-Cold War Europe the East-West divide no longer exists in the form of the clear-cut Iron Curtain, separating two security blocs, two politico-economic systems, and two ideologically and culturally distinct worlds. Still, it remains clearly discernible, both in the form of unrelenting politico-cultural differences and as an economic Golden Curtain. At the same time, a more complicated system of intersecting political, economic and mental borders keeps developing. Today, there are various scales of interaction, which produce distinctive national, regional and local experiences of borders. In this book, the construction of new political, economic and mental borders is analysed by specialists from both sides of the former East-West divide. The future of European borders is discussed in various national and regional settings, from the Barents Region in the North to the Old Habsburgian lands in 'Mitteleuropa'.

TRAA is publishing this guide as a resource for those working in the towing and recovery industry who are not themselves towing operators. This is the first book of two in the series. This first book is specifically designed for support personnel such as dispatchers, scene safety supervisors, compliance directors, and office managers and lays the foundation. Additionally, this guide may be used a study guide to prepare for the TRSCP® Entry Level certification exam available on www.towcert.com.

Background For towing and recovery professionals to effectively do their jobs, they rely on other industry professionals serving in supportive roles who are not themselves tow operators. While many don't work directly on the roadways, support personnel such as dispatchers, scene safety supervisors, compliance directors, and office managers are an integral part of the towing and recovery team. The role of support personnel is critical to effective incident management. Many of these individuals respond to incident sites or work behind the scenes to dispatch equipment and resources that are necessary to facilitate the clearance. They also handle communication, documentation, and track the incident for safety compliance thereby contributing to quick clearance needs. While the TRSCP® was developed specifically for the towing and recovery industry, the program is open to all qualified candidates in other associated fields that meet the requirements. If you are an agency dispatcher in law enforcement, 911, TIM, Department of Transportation (DOT), etc. we hope this program will enhance your understanding of the equipment, resources, and logistics necessary for an efficient towing and recovery response and, thereby, increase interdisciplinary communication. If you are a non-agency party that may be present at an incident scene (such as Public Information Officers (PIO), media, fleet safety directors, and insurance adjusters), we hope this will expand your knowledge base of incident management and quick clearance. These materials are intended for educational purposes only.
