About the Book

Beautiful World of

Abstract contains pieces of textural abstract artist Tiara Byrd's heart in art form. These meaningful paintings give definition to what Byrd sees in God's creation, through the lenses he has given her. Enjoy each work and let your mind wonder and wander. As each piece fills your heart with possibility and ambition, let what fills your heart spill out in action to destiny and purpose. Tiana Byrd welcomes you to think what you think, see what you see, and feel what you feel as you journey through the Beautiful World of Abstract. About the Author Tiara Byrd is a self-taught artist currently residing in Chicago, IL. She is a passionate and hardworking artist who has a track record for creating original pieces of textural abstract artwork, through a variety of different mediums. She can work with a wide variety of materials such as sand, glass, and eggshells. Her passion for art came from her inability to purchase original artwork because the artwork that piqued her interest was very expensive. So, Byrd decided to create her own textural abstract artwork, and she wanted my textural artwork to be accessible to all socioeconomic groups with various backgrounds. Byrd has since been in art exhibitions from the Black Girl Art Show to the Rostrum 312 Art show. She also sells her original textural abstract art pieces at the Martin marketplace, and she is a member of the Oak Park Art League.

adults? It's been scientifically proven to help you take your attention away from your problems. This is the first step to stress relief. Because coloring regulates your amygdala, you get therapeutic relief from stress. You get a small dose of dopamine when you color which helps reduce anxiety and fear. The Abstract Soul

Dorrance Publishing

In recent years, there has been an increasing demand for, and rapid development in, the learning and teaching of Asian languages as a foreign language throughout the world. Many governments recognize that Asian languages are of strategic economic importance, and thus they are now offered as a foreign language by a great number of schools and higher education institutions. This book contains chapters written by different authors from several countries on key issues and problems in the teaching of the Chinese, Russian, Farsi, Japanese and Malaysian languages, and some comparative studies. The contributors here explore future directions in the teaching of Asian languages in the 21st century. The ten chapters of the book have been prepared by the authors using the scholarly papers they presented at the Second International Symposium on Asian Languages and Literatures (ADES), which was held on 3–4 May 2012 at Erciyes University, Kayseri, Turkey, under the title of “Teaching of Asian Languages in the 21st Century”.

Notebook

Hello, my name is Philip R. Richards, the author of this book. I suppose you want to know something about the word smith that created these writings.

Oh, this is my friend Harry pictured with me. He has passed now, but he will always be in our hearts. I was born in 1959, I enjoy photography and the natural world. I married a wonderful woman in 1983 and had two beautiful daughters, Hannah and Allison. I am blessed with a wonderful Granddaughter named Lillian Jade. We live in the Michigan, the winter wonderland. It is a beautiful state with much to explore. I discovered that I really enjoyed writing. Mostly I feel a need to write, to express how I view different aspects of life and to try to relate to other people with similar visions and view points. Writing is a great way to express your feelings and create an avenue between you and those around you. I hope you can relate to what I have written in this book, maybe enough to get Book II, when I get around to it.
