This book traces the historical and theological development of the Holy Spirit movement in Korea through six successive periods. These periods are characterized by repentance and revival (1900-1920), persecution and suffering under Japanese occupation (1920-1940), confusion and division (1940-1960), explosive revival in which the Pentecostal movement played a major role in the rapid growth of Korean churches (1960-1980), the movement's reaching out to all denominations (1980-2000), and the new context's demanding the Holy Spirit movement to open new horizons in its mission engagement (2000-). The volume also discusses the relationship between this movement and other religions such as shamanism, and looks forward to further engagement with issues of concern in the larger society.

Many of Dr. Cho's books talk about life in the fourth dimension -- a realm that is more real than the physical world in which we live. He points out that the world we know was fashioned in the invisible fourth dimensions -- the spiritual realm -- and the things we see are only temporary; whereas, spiritual things are eternal. In light of this, he wants each of us to gain entrance to the fourth dimension, the place where the God of might and miracles lives and moves.
