A hilarious companion to I Wanna Iguana. Ever since their baby sister came along, Alex has been forced to share a room with his little brother, Ethan, and it's a nightmare. Ethan always breaks stuff, snores like a walrus, and sticks crayons up his nose. No hardworking, well-behaved, practically grown-up boy like Alex should have to put up with that! Writing letters to his mom convinced her to let him get his pet iguana, so Alex puts pencil to paper again, this time determined to get his own room. Though all of his powers of persuasion can't get his dad to expand the house, he does come through with a fun alternative to give Alex some space of his own.

"HELP! My Students Can't Write!" Why You Need a Writing Revolution in Your Classroom and How to Lead It. The Writing Revolution (TWR) provides a clear method of instruction that you can use no matter what subject or grade level you teach. The model, also known as The Hochman Method, has demonstrated, over and over, that it can turn weak writers into strong communicators by focusing on specific techniques that match their needs and by providing them with targeted feedback. Insurmountable as the challenges faced by many students may seem, TWR can make a dramatic difference. And the method does more than improve writing skills. It also helps: Boost reading comprehension Improve organizational and study skills Enhance speaking abilities Develop analytical capabilities TWR is as much a method of teaching content as it is a method of teaching writing. There's no separate writing block and no separate writing curriculum. Instead, teachers of all subjects adapt the TWR strategies and activities to their current curriculum and weave them into their content instruction. But perhaps what's most revolutionary about the TWR method is that it takes the mystery out of learning to write well. It breaks the writing process down into manageable chunks and then has students practice the chunks they need, repeatedly, while also learning content.

A sweet and clever friendship story in rhyme, about looking past physical differences to appreciate the person (or dragon) underneath. George and Blaise are pen pals, and they write letters to each other about everything: their pets, birthdays, favorite sports, and science fair projects. There's just one thing that the two friends don't know: George is a human, while Blaise is a dragon! What will happen when these pen pals finally meet face-to-face?

"When I was a kid, my best friend was Josh Funk. Now he's becoming a friend to a whole new generation."--B.J. Novak, author of The New York Times bestseller The Book With No Pictures

Catching Readers Before They Fall Xlibris Corporation

Using examples from both adults and children, the authors explain and describe the complex integrated network of strategies that takes place in the minds of proficient readers, strategies that struggling readers have to learn in order to construct their own reading processes. The examples and scenarios of teacher/student interactions in this book provide a sense of how it looks and what it sounds like to teach strategic actions to struggling readers.--[book cover].

DEStech Publications, Inc Alex just has to convince his mom to let him have an iguana, so he puts his arguments in writing. He promises that she won't have to feed it or clean its cage or even see it if she doesn't want to. Of course Mom imagines life with a six-foot-long iguana eating them out of house and home. Alex's reassurances: It takes fifteen years for an iguana to get that big. I'll be married by then and probably living in my own house. and his mom's replies: How are you going to get a girl to marry you when you own a giant reptile? will have kids in hysterics as the negotiations go back and forth through notes. And the lively, imaginative illustrations show their polar opposite dreams of life with an iguana. Read Books Ltd Replete with strategies, examples, and reproducibles, this guide is invaluable for any teacher who wants to boost student achievement in writing for any subject or grade level!

Your Handbook for Action

Here comes the notebook that is truly friendly to your writing, drawing, and learning with visuals! This "Dual Notebook Blank & Lined" comes with blank pages and ruled pages in one same notebook. The dual format pages leave excellent space for sketching in cool things such as illustrations, doodlings, charts, etc. on one side and written notes on the other. There are total 100 non-perforated pages, which consist of 50 blank pages on the left and 50 wide ruled pages on the right, plus all these wonderful features! The book size of 8.5 x 11 inches with empty blank pages and wide spacing (0.34 inch) lined pages alternating makes the book friendly to even those who have larger handwriting, as well as children and elder writers, who love to draw and write. [This notebook is also available in 2 other sizes; 7 x 10 inches College Ruled (ISBN 1975695305) and 5.5 x 8.5 inches Narrow Ruled

(ISBN 1975695550). You can search the ISBN to find the size you need.] Every lined page comes with its page number, so you can optionally make your own table of contents or index pages for the book, which is great for writing in chapters or taking consequential notes. You can also look up the contents you want to read easily in no time. The book soft cover is laminated with matte finish that helps firm your grips, repels liquid, and also toughens the paperback cover, so your important notes will stay with you longer. The paperback also makes the book flexible, so it can be written on even when you are in a small desk. The book industry standard binding with spine (the same binding as most paperback books in the libraries.) allows the book to be stored neatly on shelf, possibly alongside other books that you have, so you can not only organize your notes, but also the places that you keep them. The book weight is light enough for your carrying along, so it can be an on-the-go companion for your studies, travelings, as well as any drawing and writing endeavors anywhere. The lines are in light grey so they are less distracting when you read or write, while they can guide your writing perfectly. The combination of blank and lined pages makes the book great for all writing and drawing related pursuits. All lines are printed on white paper that is thicker than general lined notebooks, so this book can be used with more variety of pens, giving you the ability to design your note-taking and drawing with your own taste. (Extra blank sheets may still be required in case of using it with some marker pens.) Now available in 4 colors that you can choose from; Grey (1975695186), which is this book Blue (1975695194) Pink (1975695232) Red (1975695259) [Simply copy and paste a line in the search box to find the one you need.] If you are a visual learner or a journal artist, and looking for a tool to get your inspirations done, let "Dual Notebook Blank & Lined" helps you take notes and sketches all in one place, and experience the flexible potential of pen to paper, that no technology can match!!

This funny, touching picture book celebrates the difference a good teacher can make.

Written as a thank-you note to a special teacher from the student who never forgot her, this moving story makes a great classroom read-aloud, and a perfect back-to-school gift for students and teachers! Dear Teacher, Whenever I had something to tell you, I tugged on your shirt and whispered in your ear. This time I'm writing a letter. So begins this heartfelt picture book about a girl who prefers running and jumping to listening and learning—and the teacher who gently inspires her. From stomping through creeks on a field trip to pretending to choke when called upon to read aloud, this book's young heroine would be a challenge to any teacher. But this teacher isn't just any teacher. By listening carefully and knowing just the right thing to say, she quickly learns that the girl's unruly behavior is due to her struggles with reading. And at the very end, we learn what this former student is now: a teacher herself. From award winning author Deborah Hopkinson and acclaimed illustrator Nancy Carpenter, this picture book is made to be treasured by both those who teach and those who learn.
