 When Sunshine

Patterson loses her Chicago home, job and boyfriend in one day, she needs a backup plan, fast. Luckily her Aunt Cecily has provided her with the perfect combination living and restaurant space to start over. Even though the building is located in small town Chance Creek, Montana, Sunshine is certain it's only a matter of time before she's back to take the big city by storm.

When she arrives in Chance Creek, however, she gets a surprise. Her restaurant space—and apartment—are occupied by a rival to her inheritance: the incredibly sexy, incredibly wrong for her, Cole Linden. Cole's been struggling to save his family's holdings for far too long. The indoor rifle range he inherited from his father barely pays its rent, but it's all that's keeping his other concerns—two apartment houses—afloat. If he was smart, he'd walk away from all of it and start over, but if he does, several dozen of Chance Creek's inhabitants will find themselves without a home. He thought Cecily meant to leave him the range building in her will. Instead she's set him up in a four-month-long competition with her big-city niece to see who will win the place. A niece whose knockout looks are making it damn hard for him to concentrate on the job at hand. Sunshine can't believe she'll have to open a vegan restaurant in a rifle-range waiting room, and she can't believe she'll have to share her apartment with Cole, either. Cole can't believe his friends are falling over themselves to help Sunshine succeed—and get a date with her. Now the competition is getting hot, but the sparks flying between them are even hotter. Can Cole and Sunshine find a way they both can win? Can this cowboy single dad with a baby find love with his new mail order bride? Mallory this much chicken feed. But no matter how many times River Scott shows up at the feed store, he never asks me out. The cowboy single dad is grumpy, hard-working, and a devoted father to his baby daughter. One look at him and I know we're meant to be. When I hear his late grandfather has arranged for him to select a mail order bride, I realize I'm about to lose my chance. So I do the only thing I can think of. I apply to be a bride too. I didn't expect that applying would unleash this angry, possessive side to River. Or that it would prompt him to march me to the courthouse the very next day. Now that we're married, will my new husband open his heart to me and give me the family I've always wanted? River Mallory is as sweet and innocent as an angel. That's why I keep showing up to the feed store to watch over her. It has nothing to do with her beautiful smile and generous curves. I'm just looking out for her. Then I hear she's trying to become a mail order bride and I see red. She doesn't deserve some idiot cowboy who won't appreciate her. So I do the only thing I can think of. I drag her to the courthouse and put my ring on her finger. I didn't expect that having her in my house and my bed would unleash a primal side of me that demands I claim my new bride in every way. But will a damaged cowboy like me break the heart of his curvy woman? If you love a steamy cowboy single dad with tattoos and a dark past, then it's time to meet River in The Cowboy's Angel.
