There is now growing evidence that repeating a mantra is good for mental health. The individuals who are in stressful situations are able to cope better with stress by using a mantra. Even those who see themselves as not having any religious affiliations can still benefit from mantra because it has spiritual significance. I decided to write about mantras firstly because of my own experience of using them as tools to help me not to ponder over negative thoughts but to find peace, solace, create positive energy and thoughts; and face the challenges of everyday life. Chanting of mantras has allowed me to conquer my mind. Secondly, over the years, I found it extremely difficult to find a book of mantras along with sufficient description of the prominent Hindu deities. After looking into the matter extensively, I discovered that a large number of Asians outside India are looking for the same in a book form so that they can carry or keep the book with them.

Gayatri is a profound prayer. It is an authentic prayer that elevates, exhilarates and enlightens. According to Hindu scriptures, a prayer in its real sense is not just chanting of a few verses. It is a comprehensive exercise that involves jnana (knowledge), dhyana (meditation) and anubhava (experience). Gayatri Mahamantra is a true prayer that not only reaches out but also reaches in. Gayatri is chanted as a Mahamantra, worshipped as the Mother Goddess and expressed as a Meter. It is not a prayer for worldly and material benefits. Gayatri is a prayer for the highest enlightenment. It is a prayer that leads to a sublime experience, a prayer that opens up our mind and vision, body and intellect to a world beyond the worldly attachments. It is a prayer that leads to the Ultimate Truth and Supreme Bliss that every enlightened human being seeks. Gayatri, like the Vedas, is meant for the entire mankind, irrespective of gender, caste, creed, religion or nationality. It is a profound prayer that can touch and transform every human being. There are lots of ancient techniques for relaxation and peace that many people of the modern era simply do not understand. People of modern societies would rather take a pill or find some quick way to make them feel better. The truth is that anyone can make themselves feel better with the use of an ancient meditation called the "mantra ". Mantras have unique spiritual powers that can help a person clear their minds of all mental thoughts while bringing them closer to the spiritual world where they can be at peace. Many ancient religions have used this technique in the past to meditate and be closer to the spirits of the world. Have you ever heard of Hinduism or Buddhism? These ancient religions of India were the very first two religions to use mantras and incorporate them into a meditation practice. For over 3000 years, mantras have continued to be used in these religions and have also been derived into many other religions that came afterwards. This book is not meant to convert you into a Hindu or Buddhist. Frankly, that would have to be a personal choice and no one can convince you to do that. But what this book does is explain in great detail about mantras, including how they are used and the great spiritual power that exists behind them. Believe it or not, you don't have to be associated with any particular religion in order to perform mantras and receive the power that they give to you. All you have to know is what mantras are and how to actually perform them in your daily ritual. Most of the time, mantras will be conducted through your meditation practices. Mantras and meditation are almost synonymous because they both get you to a spiritual place where all your mortal thoughts and feeling cease to exist. By even if you want to perform everyday activities, like driving a car or walking down the street, you can still use mantras as a way to relax and clear your mind during these situations as well. That is the great joy about performing mantras because you can literally perform them anywhere while conducting any nonverbal activity. You will learn the specifics of how this can be done and how it can change your everyday life for the better. After all, can't we all use a simple non-medical way to alleviate our stress and anxiety?

Sanatan Hindu Dharma (Perennial Hindu Religion) is like a huge banyan tree. Different kinds of faiths and beliefs have merged into it from time immemorial. As a consequence, the branches and sub-branches of Hindu religion also grew. Is there any scientific basis of the faith and values propagated in Hinduism? A very large section of people with faith in Hindu Sanatan Dharma wants that every faith and belief of this religion should not be subjected to scientific test. A man of faith is theist, while a scientific mind is atheist in nature. A harmony between the two may indicate a state of dilemma. Therefore, more discussion should take place on religious basis of beliefs prevalent in society so that we can know better the origin and religious thinking behind our beliefs.
