Words hold more power than anything else in the world ever can. They can wage or stop wars, influence millions in a few seconds and create emotions from scratch that you didn't even know existed. "Mishran " is an anthology which would have a similar impact on the readers. We've gathered authors, writers and poets from all over India to create some genuine and pure literature, which won't just touch but get instilled in people's hearts. Topics such as "love" and "death" were approached and written on, by all of our writers in Hindi as well as in English. The writers' views on the respective topics allow people to look at the ideas from all possible angles. It is a combined work of various writing styles and is bilingual, which makes it really interesting as the poems or write-ups aren't in a single tone, hence, not making it monotonous for the readers. It is a blend of emotions which will surely palpitate your heart and make you feel emotions that you might or might not have felt before. We hope to give the people the exact words that will excite their emotions immensely.

Iblees ki Majlis-e-Shoora is a conversation between Iblees (the devil) and the five members of his advisory council. It is one of the final works of Allama Iqbal. The work consists of 64 amazingly dramatized, well composed couplets. Here, Iblees presides over the clandestine session and leads the conversation. He boasts how successfully he has mislead Mankind throughout history by introducing ideas and doctrines such as Imperialism, Capitalism, Fascism etc., which have ultimately landed the human society in ruins. His advisers point towards a few emerging trends such as Western democracy and Marxism that they saw as potential threats to the evil regime of Iblees. Summarily dismissing all these apprehensions of his advisers, Iblees concludes, that the revolutionary spirit of Islam is the greatest threat to his evil empire and hence the most crucial task ahead was to stop the waves of Muslim resurgence. He instructs them to keep the followers of Islam totally preoccupied with vain spiritual rituals, complex philosophical debates and narrow theological intricacies. Allama Iqbal, an advocate of universal human fraternity, envisaged the revival of the original Islamic civilization, globally. His works, exposed the limitations of the socio-political and economic concepts introduced by the West.

Shri Mataji writes that "India is a very ancient country and it has been blessed by many seers and saints who wrote treatises about reality and guidelines on how to achieve it." This is just such a book. This book is both an introduction to Sahaja Yoga, describing the nature of the subtle reality within each of us, and a step-by-step handbook on how to be a good Sahaja Yogi, the nature of Sahaj culture, how to be a leader and how to raise children. "The knowledge of Sahaja Yoga cannot be described in a few sentences or one small book, but one should understand that all this great work of creation and evolution is done by some great subtle organization, which is in the great divine form."

Dreaming big is not enough. Dedication and focus are necessary to achieve successful goals in your life. Don't give up on your dreams because it's better to die than giving up. When you give up on your dreams, you give up on yourself. " JO GIR KE GIRA REH GAYA USSE GIRA KOI NAHI."

Originally published in 1900. This volume is a compilation of the Jatki or Western Punjabi language.

The compiler has worked entirely in the South of the Punjab, and the work does not pretend to be more than a contribution to a very widely spoken and full language. No one man could hope to complete a dictionary of dialects spread over so wide an area.
