Fat Cat of Underwhere
Chronicle Books
This “rollicking” picture book is “laugh-out-loud” fun for new readers (Publishers Weekly, starred review). What will Fat Cat sit on? The pig? (Oink!) The chicken? (Cluck!) How about the dog? (Grrrr.) Everyone in this bumbling animal gang—understandably—hopes the victim will be someone else! Leave it to Mouse to come up with a brilliant solution that satisfies everyone, even Fat Cat himself. Filled with hilarious asides and an interactive question-answer format, this irreverent picture book will delight little ones who love to shout “NO!” “Fun to read aloud, it would also make an effective early reader for preschoolers.”—The New York Times Book Review

“A cat that puts Garfield to shame...a lot of laughs. This is a book that toddlers and new readers will reach for again and again.”—Kirkus Reviews

This story is about a fat cat, Matt, who loved to eat pizza and sleep under a tree in a shade. Matt even in his dreams always imagined how every day he eats pizza and rests in a shade under a tree. Matt was so thick and clumsy that he wore only one shoe because he could not even tie the shoelaces on his own. Somehow, everything changed when one day Matt met a kitty Betty.

And then in order to enjoy Betty, Matt completely changed his lifestyle and began to conquer Betty.

Cats are not meant to save the world. Fitz the cat is supposed to be enjoying the normal activities savored by those of the feline persuasion—napping (a lot), nibbling on house plants, sharpening his claws on expensive furniture, and, most importantly, never, ever doing what a human wants him to. But instead, thanks to Zeke, Stephanie, and Hector—those meddling, tuna-hatin', whiskerless kids who dragged him down to Underwhere—Fitz has bigger fish to fry (though, of course, he prefers his fish raw). Not only has he started thinking like a human, he's actually helping them recover the stolen Scepter of Underwhere, battle a wild pack of triceradoodles, outwit a roaming band of savage mice, and foil the plans of the strange new movie director in town, who happens to smell awfully familiar. . . .

The Fat Cat Harper Collins

One of a series, this small-sized book features poor old Fat Cat who loves his food and the fact becomes obvious when he can't walk through his own front door or get in the car. People start staring at him but luckily some mice help him and are able to offer some valuable advice and friendship.

What Will Fat Cat Sit On?

Troubador Publishing
Sam: The Cat Without A Tail follows the trials of Sam, a young Manx cat with a soft, white puff of a tail. As he discovers that he is indeed different from everyone around him, he learns and helps to teach the importance and beauty of diversity and self-worth. "Sam: The Cat Without a Tail is a children's picturebook about Sam, a white kitten without a tail - just a stump of fur. Although Sam is adopted into a loving home, he feels shy and ashamed about his lack of a tail. Can Sam learn to develop confidence? A few facts about Max cats and a note to parents and caregivers about supporting children's self-worth round out this charming, purrfectly delightful story." --James A. Cox, Editor-in-Chief, Midwest Book Review "Gloria Lintermans SAM: The Cat Without a Tail is the perfect blend of storytelling fun and teaching tool. The brilliant writing and colorful illustrations inspire higher self-worth encouraging young children to celebrate their individuality and achieve the independence to truly thrive. Reading is so important to a growing mind. What better way to inspire the special qualities and traits our children possess." --Marsh Engle, Multi-Published Author, Women's Success Speaker, Originator of AMAZING WOMAN'S DAY Fat Cats The S5 Publishing Group
