Eagle Expressions from Upstairs Corwin Press

Often times we move through life taking each day as it comes, rarely looking at our situations, much less evaluating them. This fast-reading, delightful book takes a brief look at life lessons that have presented themselves along the way. It may be in an airport, driving a vehicle, watching a movie just about anywhere. God invades our senses and reaches out to us through situations and circumstances. Some call it a God-thing or a God-moment, but they're just run of the mill times that we recognize the hand of God. Perhaps it's been there all along, but this time, this specific time, we become aware; or maybe He attacks our state of being unaware of what has always been available? Many times I have walked passed mirrors completely unaware of myself or the reflection. Other times I stop and take a look. Likewise, many times God is reaching out, and I'm passing unaware that He wants me to stop and reflect. I've missed an important encounter with Him. What follows in this book are some encounters I didn't miss. And maybe they'll help you along your way, give you pause to reflect, and meet God somewhere in the process.

Celebrate Today is a guided journal that provides a reason to revel every day of the year. It is inspired by the National Day Calendar, a compilation of appreciation days for everything from pizza to popsicles. Beginning in January and ending in December, each page is dedicated to trying something new, enjoying the little things, and feeling a sense of accomplishment by marking the passage of time in a journal. For example, March 5 is "Learn What Your Name Means Day," so do a little research into your moniker and then write an acrostic poem based on its letters. Some days involve performing good deeds, others require eating a donut, and a few recommend a little soul searching. Illustrated by Hello!Lucky, a trendsetting design studio, the entire Celebrate Today collection includes a dot-gridded journal, a paperback notebook, and a book of stickers designed for decorating a planner.

Acrostic? What kind of stick is that? Actually, it's a poem! Acrostic poems are created from a word or phrase written vertically down the page. Each letter becomes part of a line in the poem, revealing a thought or a clue about the poem's topic. Award-winning author Brian P. Cleary shows how even the wackiest words can make an acrostic poem. Bow-Tie Pasta is packed with acrostics to make you snicker and snort. And when you've finished reading, you can try your hand at writing your own poems!
