Der achte Fall der Kultserie Zefix, grad will der Eberhofer den häuslichen Frieden genießen, da steckt er schon mittendrin in seinem achten Fall: Ein umstrittenes Luxus-Spa-Hotel öffnet in Niederkaltenkirchen seine Pforten. Und die Hälfte der Dorfbevölkerung tobt. Als dort kurz darauf auch noch eine Leiche in einer Marmorbadewanne liegt, muss der Eberhofer freilich wieder ran. Ganz egal, wie geschmeidig es mit der Susi läuft.

Saint-Martin-de-Comminges is a small town nestled in the French Pyrenees. The kind of place where winters are harsh and unforgiving and where nothing ever happens. Until the winter morning when a group of workers discover the headless, flayed body of a horse, hanging suspended from the edge of a frozen cliff. On the same day the gruesome discovery takes place, Diane

Berg, a young psychiatrist starts her first job at a high-security asylum for the criminally insane, just a few miles away. She is baffled by the slightly unorthodox methods the asylum's director uses, and then greatly alarmed when she realizes that drugs are disappearing from within the fortified institution while someone seems to be slipping out at night. Commandant Martin Servaz, a charismatic city cop from nearby Toulouse fond of quoting Latin, can't believe he has been called out over the death of an animal. But there's something disturbing about this crime that he can't ignore. Then DNA from one of the most notorious inmates of the asylum, a highly intelligent former prosecutor, accused of killing and raping several women, is found on the horse carcass . . . and a few days later the first human murder takes place. A dark story of madness and revenge seems to be unfolding. Servaz and his colleague, the mysterious Irene Ziegler, must use all their skill to solve the terrifying mystery and best one of the most fiendish and clever opponents they could ever imagine.

Eberhofer Im Polizeihof Landshut wird ein toter Polizist gefunden. Der Letzte, der mit dem Barschl zu tun hatte, war der Franz. Nun war der Tote ausgerechnet sein direkter Vorgesetzter – und absoluter Erzfeind. Blöderweise handelt es sich bei der Mordwaffe auch noch um Franz' Hirschfänger. Sieht also nicht gut aus für den Eberhofer!

Police Detective Pia Kirchhoff is about to leave on her long-delayed honeymoon when she receives a phone call from police headquarters: An elderly woman has been shot and killed while walking her dog. Neither her grieving daughter nor any of her acquaintances have an explanation for the horrifying murder. Ingeborg Rohlehder was well-liked and a generous, loving woman. A short while later, another murder is committed and the modus operandi is eerily similar — a woman is executed by a precisely aimed bullet to the head that smashes through her kitchen window while she is baking cookies . . . and in both cases the same weapon fired the shot from a distance only a trained sniper could manage. Two more murders follow in short order. None of the victims had enemies and no one knows why they were singled out. As fear of the Taunus Sniper grows among the local residents, the pressure rises on Detective Kirchhoff. She and her partner, Oliver von Bodenstein, search feverishly for a suspect who appears to murder at will, but soon realize that “The Judge,” as the sniper calls himself, seems to have a mission—a mission that has not reached its conclusion yet. As the investigation progresses, the police officers uncover a human tragedy that will shake them to the core. I am Your Judge is tightly plotted, and delivers surprise twists at every turn with a story that is ripped from the headlines.

Franz Eberhofer ermittelt dreimal! Diese Ausgabe enthält folgende Einzeltitel:
Winterkartoffelknödel, Dampfnudelblues, Schweinskopf al dente Winterkartoffelknödel: Nachdem der Eberhofer Franz seinen Dienst bei der Münchner Polizei quittieren musste und in sein niederbayerisches Heimatdorf Niederkaltenkirchen strafversetzt wurde, schiebt er eine ruhige Kugel. Seine Streifengänge führen ihn immer zum Wolfi auf ein Bier oder an den Küchentisch seiner stocktauben Großmutter. Sehr erholsam, bei all dem Zoff mit einem hanfanbauenden Vater (Alt-68er), der ihn mit Beatles-Dauerbeschallung noch in den Wahnsinn treibt. Aber manchmal muss der Eberhofer Franz auch in ziemlich grausigen Todesfällen ermitteln. So wie bei seinem ersten Fall: Da ist diese Geschichte mit den Neuhofer, die an den komischsten Dingen sterben. Mutter Neuhofer: erhängt im Wald. Vater Neuhofer (Elektromeister): Stromschlag. Jetzt ist da nur noch der Hans. Und wer weiß, was dem bevorsteht ...

Dampfnudelblues: Gerade läuft's für den

Eberhofer Franz mit der Susi einwandfrei, sein heimischer Saustall ist so gut wie fertig eingerichtet, da überschlagen sich die Ereignisse in Niederkaltenkirchen: »Stirb, du Sau!« hat jemand mit roter Farbe an Realschulrektor Höpfls Eigenheim geschmiert, und kurz drauf liegt er auch noch tot auf den Gleisen! Selbstmord? Mord? Mal wieder Stress pur für den Franz ... The Blair Witch Project meets Midsommar in this brilliantly disturbing thriller from Camilla Sten, an electrifying new voice in suspense. Documentary filmmaker Alice Lindstedt has been obsessed with the vanishing residents of the old mining town, dubbed "The Lost Village," since she was a little girl. In 1959, her grandmother's entire family disappeared in this mysterious tragedy, and ever since, the unanswered questions surrounding the only two people who were left—a woman stoned to death in the town center and an abandoned newborn—have plagued her. She's gathered a small crew of friends in the remote village to make a film about what really happened. But there will be no turning back. Not long after they've set up camp, mysterious things begin to happen. Equipment is destroyed. People go missing. As doubt breeds fear and their very minds begin to crack, one thing becomes startlingly clear to Alice: They are not alone. They're looking for the truth... But what if it finds them first? Franz Eberhofert, a testestül-lelkestül bajor rendört fegyelmi okokból helyezték át a nyüzsgő nagyvárosból csendes kis szülőfalujába, az ugyancsak jellegzetesen bajor Niederkaltenkirchenbe. Élete itt néha túlságosan is nyugodt mederben folydogál, esti járőrözései általában Wolfi kocsmájának pultjánál érnek véget, napközben pedig kedvenc tartózkodási helye süket nagymamájának konyhája, ahol ínycsiklandó ételeket ehet reggeltől estig. Apja, a kiöregedett 68-as lázadó közben vadkendert természet a hátsó kertben és folyamatosan Beatlest hallgat, amivel kishíján az örületbe kergeti a kemény rockot előnyben részesítő fiát. A békés hétköznapiakba azonban időnként zavaró események tolakodnak be. Itt van mindjárt a Neuhofer család, amelynek tagjai a legkülönösebb módokat választják az elhalálózásra. Annyira különös módokat, hogy Franz nyomozói szimata feléled és elhatározza, hogy utánanéző egy kicsit a morbid haláleseteknek. Ahogy egyre több gyanús körülményt fedez fel, az ügy is egyre érdekesebbé, ugyanakkor hátborzongatóbbá is válik... A jó krimik, a jó ételek és a jó humor kedvelőinek – Nagyi hamisítatlan bajor receptjeivel.

“Kemal Kayankaya is the ultimate outsider among hard-boiled private eyes.” —Marilyn Stasio, The New York Times Book Review
OVER 1 MILLION COPIES SOLD WORLDWIDE As a Turkish immigrant raised by Germans, he's regularly subjected to racism in the gritty, working-class city, and getting work isn't easy. So when his friend Romario asks Kayankaya to protect him against thugs demanding protection money from his restaurant business, the down-and-out Kayankaya takes the job. Except these are no ordinary thugs. They turn out to be battle-hardened Croatian nationalists looking to take over the rackets in Frankfurt, and they do not take kindly to Kayankaya's interference with their plans. But try as he might, Kayankaya just can't seem to stay out of their way ... What ensues is a brilliant novel about organized crime, immigration, the fallout from the Balkan wars, and the madness of nationalism from one of Europe's finest crime writers.

"The book is like a dream you want to last forever" (Roberta Silman, The New York Times Book Review), now with a gorgeous new cover by the famed designer Peter Mendelsund A masterwork of W. G. Sebald, now with a gorgeous new cover by the famed designer Peter Mendelsund The Rings of Saturn—with its curious archive of photographs—records a walking tour of the eastern coast of England. A few of the things which cross the path and mind of its narrator (who both is and is not Sebald) are lonely eccentrics, Sir Thomas Browne's skull, a matchstick model of the Temple of Jerusalem, recession-hit seaside towns, wooded hills, Joseph Conrad, Rembrandt's "Anatomy Lesson," the natural history of the herring, the massive bombings of WWII, the dowager Empress Tzu Hsi, and the silk industry in Norwich. W.G. Sebald's The Emigrants (New Directions, 1996) was hailed by Susan Sontag as an "astonishing masterpiece perfect while being unlike any book one has ever read." It was "one of the great books of the last few years," noted Michael Ondaatje, who now acclaims The Rings of Saturn "an even more inventive work than its predecessor, The Emigrants." Dear Child Minotaur Books Every dog might have his day, but the hellhound guards the night As a snowstorm locks down the city, more than the roads are getting iced. Someone's beheaded the wrong girl, and vampire-on-the-lam Talia Rostova thinks it was meant to be her. Now she's the prime suspect in her own botched murder—and the prisoner of her smoking-hot neighbor. Lore is a hellhound, bred to serve and protect, so he's not freeing Talia until he's sure that she's the prey and not the hunter. You'd think a beautiful woman in his bedroom would be a good thing, but trouble-prone Talia has run afoul of someone more sinister than your average lunatic killer. An ancient Undead is wreaking vengeance on the city—and on her—and Lore will have to go far beyond a stake to put him back in his grave. Second edition. A vanished child, a family in turmoil, and a fateful phone call that brings the torments of the past into the harrowing present . . . the New York Times bestselling author of Someone Is Watching weaves these spellbinding elements into a gripping novel of psychological suspense—a must-read for fans of Laura Lippman and Mary Higgins Clark. “I think my real name is Samantha. I think I’m your daughter.” Caroline Shipley’s heart nearly stops when she hears those words from the voice on the other end of the phone. Instantly, she’s thrust fifteen years into the past, to a posh resort in Baja, Mexico—and the fateful night her world collapsed. The trip is supposed to be a celebration. Caroline’s husband, Hunter, convinces her to leave their two young daughters, Michelle and Samantha, alone in their hotel suite while the couple enjoys an anniversary dinner in the restaurant downstairs. But returning afterward, Caroline and Hunter make a horrifying discovery: Two-year-old Samantha has vanished without a trace. What follows are days, weeks, and years of anguish for Caroline. She's tormented by media attention that has branded her a cold, incompetent mother, while she struggles to save her marriage. Caroline also has to deal with the demands of her needy elder daughter, Michelle, who is driven to cope in dangerous ways. Through it all, Caroline desperately clings to the hope that Samantha will someday be found—only to be stung again and again by cruel reality. Plunged back into the still-raw heartbreak of her daughter's disappearance, and the suspicions and inconsistencies surrounding a case long gone cold, Caroline doesn't know whom or what to believe. The only thing she can be sure of is that someone is fiercely determined to hide the truth of what happened to Samantha. Praise for Joy Fielding's Someone Is Watching "Someone Is Watching gripped me from the first to the very last page. Bailey Carpenter is a heroine who's both victim and warrior woman, a fascinating sleuth who will linger with you long after you've finished this thrilling read."—Tess Gerritsen "Fielding pens a spiraling tale of paranoia and suspense, as sultry as a Miami night."—Jenny Milchman "An edge-of-your-seat read . . . With Fielding's patented blend of complex characters and escalating suspense, she is in top form here.”—Karen Robards “Engrossing . . . The characters pulsate with life.”—Publishers Weekly (starred review)

 “A gripping, fast-paced psychological thriller . . . Fielding’s story of one woman’s search for justice, understanding, and internal peace is nothing short of arresting.”—Booklist (starred review)

 This riveting new detective novel evokes a spellbinding concoction of crime, history, and horror—perfect for fans of Arthur Conan Doyle and P.D. James. New Year’s Day, 1889. In Edinburgh’s lunatic asylum, a patient escapes as a nurse lays dying. Leading the manhunt are legendary local Detective ‘Nine-Nails’ McGray and Londoner-in-exile Inspector

Ian Frey. Before the murder, the suspect was heard in whispered conversation with a fellow patient—a girl who had been mute for years. What made her suddenly break her silence? And why won’t she talk again? Could the rumours about black magic be more than superstition? McGray and Frey track a devious psychopath far beyond their jurisdiction, through the worst blizzard in living memory, into the shadow of Pendle Hill—home of the Lancashire witches—where unimaginable danger awaits.
