The War of the Worlds is a science fiction novel, written by English author H. G. Wells. It was first serialized in Pearson's Magazine (UK) and Cosmopolitan magazine (USA) in 1897 and then published in book format in 1898. It is one of the earliest sci-fi stories to describe a conflict between humans and extraterrestrial life forms. The novel is narrated by two unnamed characters, one in Surrey and one in London, who experience the alien invasion of southern England by Martians. This beautiful reprint of the original book is unabridged and unedited, preserving The War of The Worlds for your reading pleasure. It makes a wonderful gift for the sci-fi fan in your life or a wonderful addition to your library of classic literature. Enjoy! Excerpt: There, among some young pine trees and furze bushes, I stopped, panting, and waited further developments. The common round the sand-pits was dotted with people, standing like myself in a half-fascinated terror, staring at these creatures, or rather at the heaped gravel at the edge of the pit in which they lay. And then, with a renewed horror, I saw a round, black object bobbing up and down on the edge of the pit. H.G. Well's 1898 science fiction classic, The War of the Worlds, tapped into society's fears about worldwide security and an impending war in Europe. However, it wasn't until forty years later that The War of the Worlds became infamous. On October 30, 1938, the United States was certain that it was under siege by vicious Martians. Thousands of people called the police, many ran from their homes in terror, and some even sought medical attention for shock and hysteria. Martians weren't really invading: Orson Welles, a famous actor, was performing a radio dramatization of The War of the Worlds that conviced listeners an invasion could happen anytime and anywhere.
