CIMA offers a business qualification with a finance focus, aiming to produce members with accounting prowess who are skilled in strategic decision-making. 98% of its members work in business, the highest proportion of any worldwide accountancy body. The CIMA E1 exam covers a variety of topics that are unrelated but are all essential to the running of a successful business. There is a strong theoretical basis to this subject and it is important that students understand how to apply these theories in the 'real world'. The key E1 subject areas are: * The global business environment * Information systems * Marketing * Managing human capital. The E1 Study Text comprehensively covers all the E1 syllabus areas. It breaks down each topic into manageable chunks and clearly describes all relevant theories. The questions in the question bank demonstrate how these theories should be applied in an exam situation.

The important point to note about P1 is that the exam can test a very large amount of the syllabus because of the objective-testing section. The best way to ensure that you retain the knowledge that you have learned is to keep applying it to questions. The P1 Practice and Revision Kit contains questions in the section A objective testing format and also in the format of the longer section B and section C questions. The questions are grouped into syllabus areas and labelled as section A, B or C type questions.

F1 builds on knowledge from paper C2 and introduces tax at a very basic level; it is not based on any tax regime. Financial reporting is a major part of the syllabus, both single company and group accounts are examined in the two '25-mark' questions in section C. New financial reporting topics introduced at this level are: group accounts; construction contracts; financial instruments; and leases. It has four main sections: The principles of business taxation The principles of regulation of financial reporting Preparation of financial statements which conform with IFRS Consolidated financial statements The study text concentrates on the key areas of the syllabus, taking into account the way in which topics are examined. The text has a step-by-step approach to producing financial statements and lots of exercises in which you can practice the workings. We guide you through the more problematic topics which can be brought into the preparation of single company and group financial statements, and give you plenty of examples.

CIMA offers a business qualification with a finance focus, aiming to produce members with accounting prowess who are skilled in strategic decision-making. 98% of its members work in business, the highest proportion of any worldwide accountancy body. Paper F2 Financial Management replaces Paper P8 Financial Analysis. The syllabus is very similar to old Paper P8, but students will now meet elementary groups at Paper F1 level prior to studying F2. The syllabus specifically includes share-based payments and the emphasis of ratios has now changed from calculation to interpretation. The main syllabus areas have been changed to: * Group financial statements * Issues in recognition and measurement * Analysis and interpretation of financial accounts * Developments in external reporting The Study Text focuses on the exam. It provides clear and detailed coverage of the syllabus. Exercises within each chapter cover both basic principles and more detailed issues. In the area of consolidation, these include both complex groups and changes in group structure during the year. Accounting standards are explained and their practical implementation illustrated and tested through appropriate questions.
