When I met Shri Narendra Modi, Prime Minister of India on the 26th of March 2015, my enthusiasm for music was at its lowest ebb. During our conversation, Modiji was intrigued by my dream project, 'Sangeet Gram', an academy in the memory of Ustad Bismillah Khan. But, I was surprised to find that he shared this dream with me, having himself built a museum to preserve the endangered instruments of India. The following year arrived and I began preparations for Ustad Bismillah Khan's centennial celebrations, including the construction of Sangeet Gram. It was then that I received the honour of being inducted into the National Implementation Committee for Centenary Celebrations and my efforts now extend to holding celebration concerts in India and abroad. I had already been writing an account of Baba's life; the priceless anecdotes that he had shared and the surreal moments that we had spent together. In order to commemorate his musical genius and celebrate 100 years of his unparalleled contribution to music in this field, I deemed it fit to publish it all in book form. I hope this book provides its readers with an insight into Baba's life, and that they too celebrate his simplicity, his undying perseverance and patience with his art, the genius of his music and my musical journey, through this book-'Baba & Me'.

This is translated from English book The Music Room written by Namita Devidayal.

When Namita is ten, her mother takes her to Dhondutai, a respected Mumbai music teacher from the great Jaipur Gharana. Dhondutai has dedicated herself to music and her antecedents are rich.

She is the only remaining student of the legendary Alladiya Khan, the founder of the gharana and of its most famous singer, the tempestuous songbird, Kesarbai Kerkar. Namita begins to learn singing from Dhondutai, at first reluctantly and then, as the years pass, with growing passion.

Dhondutai sees in her a second Kesar, but does Namita have the dedication to give herself up completely to music—or will there always be too many late nights and cigarettes? Beautifully written, full of anecdotes, gossip and legend, The Music Room is perhaps the most intimate book to be written about Indian classical music yet.

Spectrum Of Thoughts

We are often said "go with the flow" but you know what, that's the most difficult thing. Saying to someone, "go with the flow" is quite easy but practising it in reality is freaking difficult because we humans always tend to break the flow and want things to happen as per our will. No matter how much we say "we won't keep hope" but it's human nature - when someone treats us with gentle care, we keep a hope from them. We hope that they are our people, that we can rely on them. When this hope difficult situations in his life, some people

 give in to such difficult situations and some

 despite this, the

Well the cover says its a protest but its not against love and this book is far from it. In India , one sided love has become a significant reason behind acid attacks. A person who was not able to listen and understand an answer thought of throwing acid as the only way to prove his true love.

This book compiles letters written by acid attackfighters expressing their views on love and howdeeply they got hurt by someone's act to destroytheir whole life but they also wrote about beingstrong and moving on to conquer their dreams.Some other people have also written some lettersincluding the team members of Stop Acid Attacks.Some poems are also there telling the tales of anacid attack fighter. Our Volunteers took a peacefulway to express their grief by writing a letter to theone who had hurt them at some point of time. At last this book won't only inspire you or help you define love but will also raise a question that could love be a reason behind any cruel
