This Story needed to be told since the day when Man first decided to have a wild Animal made in to a Domestic one there have been many Stories told over time some of them very good some not so but this one you will agree is one of a Dog who is loved so much and gives so much back to her Owner that it has to be told why she is so Special! Senta is a mix between German Sheppard & Collie she has the best of both Dogs, a Neighbor of mine said to be one time, but she is not a pure breed, that is true she is not one pure breed but two rolled up in one she is one of the smartest dogs I know she always knows when her Owner is not so up to par to play with her she is happy on those days just to go for a walk she knows that tomorrow she will get the good run she is used to getting almost every day. She is also a Dog who only Barks when there is danger or some one coming up to the House. When she is outside with Monika some of the Neighbor dogs bark at her she does not respond she just looks over to them once that is all she ignores them as if to say why are you barking there is no one out here but us. She is also very protective of Monika's Husband Peter he can not get close to Monika if Senta does not want him to. They do have a very special bond and I hope you enjoy this book just as much as I enjoyed writing it.

As a spy prepared to give away America's biggest secrets after the 9/11 attacks, an FBI agent raced to catch her. U.S.

government officials knew they had a spy. But it never occurred to them it was a woman—and certainly not a superstar Defense Intelligence Agency employee known as “the Queen of Cuba.”

Ana Montes had spent seventeen years spying for the Cubans.

She had been raised in a patriotic Puerto Rican household: Her father, a psychiatrist, was a former colonel in the U.S. Army. Her sister worked as a translator for the FBI and helped break up a ring of Cuban spies in Miami. Her brother was also a loyal FBI agent. Montes impressed her bosses, but in secret, spent her breaks memorizing top secret documents before sending them to the Cuban government. She received no payment, even as one of her missives could have brought her the death penalty. She also listened to anxiety-relief tapes, took medication, and saw a psychiatrist. She dreamed of a normal life where she could work a job she enjoyed. She dreamed of getting married, and even had a man in mind: a defense analyst on the Cuba account for Southern Command. He had no idea that, three times a week, Montes pulled a short-wave radio from her closet and received encrypted messages from Cuba. After the 9/11 attacks, Cuba wanted Montes to continue her work. They couldn't know the FBI was already on to her. Retired FBI agent Peter J. Lapp explains the clues—including never-released information—that led their team to catch one of the United States' most dangerous spies.

There is no book on the market that addresses the needs of long-term caregivers regardless of the challenges faced by their loved ones. Most books focus on specific illnesses or conditions such as survivors of stroke, head or spinal injuries, dementia and Alzheimer's, or parenting an or disabled child. Additionally, books tend to lump all caregivers into one group—those dealing with short-term illnesses, those facing end-of-life issues, and long-term care. Caring for someone who is expected to live for a relatively long period of time with an illness or condition poses specific and unique challenges for the caregiver. This book pinpoints the needs and strategies of this population. While some books focus on "surviving" long-term caregiving, It's My Life Too demonstrates the life of the caregiver is of equal importance and that caregiving can be a rewarding and gratifying experience.
