ONCE more
permit me,
nuns, and this
the last; I
can't resist,
whatever may
have passed,

But must
relate, what
often I've been told;
Your tales of
convent
pranks are
seldom cold;
They have a
grace that no
where else we
find, And,
somehow,
better seem to please
designed.
Another then
we'll have,
which three
will make:—
Three did I
say?-'tis four,
or I mistake;
Let's count
them well:-
The
GARD'NER
first, we'll name; Then comes the
ABBESS,
whose

declining
frame
Required a
youth, her
malady to
cure A story
thought,
perhaps, not
over pure;
And, as to
SISTER JANE,
who'd got a
brat, I cannot fancy we
should alter
that. These are the whole,
and four's a
number
round; You'll probably
remark, 'tis
strange I've found Such pleasure in
detailing
convent
scenes:— 'Tis
not my whim,
but TASTE,
that thither
leans: And, if

you'd kept
your breviary
in view, 'Tis
clear, you'd nothing had
with this to
do; We know,
howe'er, 'tis
not your
fondest care;
So, quickly to
our hist'ry
let's repair. A
CHARMING
youth would
frequent visits
pay, To nuns,
whose
convent near
his dwelling
lay; And,
'mong the
sisters, one
his person
saw, Who, by
her eyes,
would fain
attention
draw; Smiles
she bestowed,
and other
complaisance,

But not a
single step
would he
advance; By
old and young
he greatly was
admired;
Sighs burst
around, but none his bosom fired.

imprégner des enseignements spirituels offerts par cette série inestimable." Asctica BoD - Books on Demand The twenty-five crisp and amusing short stories in this collection prove that elementary readings in French can also be entertaining. Some are original anecdotes and others adaptations of traditional French of French-Canadian stories, some are from anonymous sources, and some by acknowledged masters such as LaFontaine. All are distinguished by the classic literary virtue of the French—precision, economy, and the traditional Gallic twist. A delightful series of line drawings by Antje Lingner aptly reflects the spirit of the book. This collection is designed for reading in Grades XI and XII, and for introductory courses at the University or Extension course level.

To encourage a quick response and facility in reading, the stories emphasize the idiomatic and rely heavily on dialogue, avoiding as much as possible an over-literary syntax. The text employs elementary vocabulary and constructions throughout and is representative in all respects of the spoken language today. The emphasis on conversational organization in the stories will be immediately apparent, and it is this feature that should be exploited in the classroom and other group situations. On a series of four long-playing records the entire text has been transcribed for use in oral and phonetics classes. The readings are given slowly but naturally and with a relish which catches the drama and humour of the material. The combination of text and recordings offers a most valuable method of acquiring aural familiarity with spoken French. The stories are supplemented with vocabulary, notes and exercises. For each story there is supplied a series of questions that lend themselves to oral answers and discussion; in addition there is a short exercise reviewing grammatical forms, with special emphasis on the verb, as well as a brief passage for prose translation into French. Tools and the Man

This book engages with recent philosophical interventions into democracy, equality, and human rights to demonstrate their relevance to the field of Francophone Postcolonial Studies. The book explores the relationship between aesthetics and politics in the postcolonial Algerian novel. Resolution Trust Corporation Whistleblower s Rowman & Littlefield Reprint of the original, first published in 1860. Le chemin des âmes dans l'éternité ou Les 24 coutumes de l'air Library of Alexandria Papers presented at the Eleventh International Conference on Patristic Studies held in Oxford 1991 (see also Studia Patristica 24, 26, 27 and 28). The successive sets of Studia Patristica contain papers delivered at the International Conferences on Patristic Studies, which meet for a week once every four years in Oxford; they are held under the aegis of the Theology Faculty of the University. Members of these conferences come from all over the world and most offer papers. These range over the whole field, both East and West, from the second century to a section on the Nachleben of the Fathers. The majority are short papers dealing with some small and manageable point; they raise and sometimes resolve questions about the authenticity of documents, dates of events, and such like, and some unveil new texts. The smaller number of longer papers put such matters into context and indicate wider trends. The whole reflects the state of Patristic scholarship and demonstrates the vigour and popularity of the subject.

British and Foreign State Papers London Macmillan 1894.

This volume reflects the different methods and new approaches to the study of Byzantine history that have characterized the work of Paul Speck, to whom it is dedicated, and above all, his insistence on a close reading and careful interpretation of the sources.

These aims are encapsulated in the introduction by John Haldon, which gives a sense of where future studies should lead new generations of scholars. The following studies, by many of the leading authorities in their fields, look at a whole range of aspects of the history of Byzantium - its culture, theology, linguistics, literature, historiography, sigillography and art - and at the place of the Byzantine empire within the late antique and medieval worlds.
