 Through the
 generations,
 poets from
 William
 Shakespeare
 to Thomas Hardy and from John Donne to Christina Rossetti have been inspired
 to celebrate the Christmas season in verse. Just as we cherish our Christmas
 traditions
 now, so many of the great
 poets wrote
 beautifully
 about the Christmas
 story, magical
 wintry

landscapes,
festive
traditions and
making merry.
And then, of course, there
are the much-
loved songs
and carols
from around the world that we still sing
today, many of which are included in this enchanting
anthology.

Christmas Poems Pan Macmillan The READ ME brand has been a publishing sensation, selling tens of thousands of copies and continuing to sell strongly for half a decade. This brand-new collection features a funny poem for every day of the year, from rhymes that will raise a gentle smile to verse that will make you laugh your socks off. This book is packed with gems new and old from poets such as Charles Causley, Roger McGough, Lewis Carroll, Paul Cookson and Wendy Cope.

Poems for Travellers Pan Macmillan Poems from the First World War is a moving and powerful collection of poems written by soldiers, nurses, mothers, sweethearts and family and friends who experienced WWI from different standpoints. It records the early excitement and patriotism, the bravery, friendship and loyalty of the soldiers, and the heartbreak, disillusionment and regret as the war went on to damage a generation. It includes poems from Wilfred Owen, Rupert Brooke, Vera Brittain, Eleanor Farjeon, Edward Thomas, Laurence Binyon, John McCrae, Siegfried Sassoon and many more. The Imperial War Museum was founded in 1917 to collect and display material relating to the 'Great War', which was still being fought. Today IWM is unique in its coverage of conflicts, especially those involving Britain and the Commonwealth h, from the First World War to the present. They seek to provide for, and to encourage, the study and understanding of the history of modern war and wartime experience.
