It's not always

stated that blatantly but the promises of the Prosperity Gospel--or the name-it-and-claim-it gospel, the health-and-wealth gospel, the word of faith movement, or positive confession theology--are false. Yet its message permeates the preaching of well-known Christian leaders: Joyce Meyer, T. D. Jakes, Joel Osteen, Creflo Dollar, Kenneth and Gloria Copeland, and many more. The appeal of this teaching crosses racial, gender, denominational, and international boundaries. Why are otherwise faithful Christians so easily led astray? Because the Prosperity Gospel contains a grain of biblical truth, greatly distorted. For anyone who knows that Prosperity Gospel theology is wrong but has trouble articulating and refuting the finer points, this concise edition contains all the robust arguments of the hard-hitting original edition in a shorter, more accessible form.

Blessed To Be A Blessing

One of the most difficult subjects to preach is the subject of financial prosperity. For many years, folks have been wrongly taught in this area so they have a repulsive attitude toward this subject. But I want you to understand that you cannot benefit from the word of God that you fight or resist. For as many as received Him, (the Word), to them gave He power to become JOHN 1:12 That means you are never empowered to walk in the reality of any scriptural provision if you resist it. Throughout the Bible, from the Old Testament to the New, it is very clear that God wants His people to succeed and prosper financially, yet there are too many Christians today, preachers inclusive, that are fighting against the message of prosperity. It ought not to be so. God's will for you and I is prosperity, nothing else.
