"Visiting the writer Hermann Hesse while researching alchemists with his old friend Professor Steiner, Corto drinks from the 'source of the Alchemy Rose' and becomes immersed in a surreal and dreamlike adventure that involves Klingsor, the quest for the Holy Grail, Death, the Devil, and the Sandman, among others"--Provided by publisher.

Tierra del Fuego, at the beginning of the 20th century. A vast and desolate land only frequented by gold diggers, English missionaries, Chilean and Argentine military and the age-old Ona, Alacaluf and Yaghan tribes. In this unique world, where the Andean mountains plunge into the Pacific Ocean, several characters with tormented fates will cross paths and clash, on their journey to Cape Horn. A sprawling, nautical, frontier saga, full of adventure and romance, from the author of El Nino. Corto Maltese Bloomsbury Publishing USA In this final entry of Hugo Pratt's epic series, the master graphic novelist returns to the theme he first explored in the initial episode--the search for the lost continent of Mu, the mythical Atlantis. A premonition hovers over the entire dreamlike story, as if fate had decided in advance that this would be Corto Maltese's last adventure. The feeling is underscored by the return of most of the major characters seen throughout the long-running saga, like actors giving their final curtain call: Gold Mouth, Morgana, Tristan Bantam, Levi Colombia, Professor Steiner, "the Monk," Cain Groovesnore, Soledad, and (of course) Rasputin...each with their own reason to find the mythical realm. Thus, the circle closes. This EuroComics edition features new translations from Pratt's original Italian scripts by Dean Mullaney, the Eisner and Harvey Award-winning editor of the Library of American Comics, and Simone Castaldi, Associate Professor of Romance Languages and Literatures at Hofstra, and the author of Drawn and Dangerous: Italian Comics of the 1970s and 1980s (University Press of Mississippi). Corto Maltese in Sibirien Lonely Planet

EL CLÁSICO DE HUGO PRATT VUELVE EN UNA COLECCIÓN CON TÍTULOS INÉDITOS Y NUEVAS VERSIONES La balada del Mar Salado es un relato iniciático, donde los jóvenes Caín y Pandora Groovesnore dejan de ser dos niños para entrar en el difícil mundo de los adultos, donde ya nadie se respeta. También es iniciático para Hugo Pratt porque es la primera obra donde aparece su famoso marinero, Corto Maltés. Un Corto distinto al que hemos llegado a conocer y querer, más duro y áspero, pero fi el a su esencia.

" Il faut la nuit pour sentir la vraie Venise. Le silence qui mène au secret. Venise est un endroit magique, parce qu'en ses eaux coulent des liens historiques entre le Nord et le monde oriental. Parce que des chevaliers teutoniques, des templiers, des rabbins, des doges, des aventuriers, des espions et des marchands ont laissé leurs traces sur les murs des ruelles, mais surtout dans l'esprit de la ville. Il n'y a qu'à Venise que de telles choses arrivent dit Corto Maltese. Pratt choisit un poète comme le Baron Corvo pour lancer Corto à la recherche de la Clavicule de Salomon, l'émeraude sur laquelle étaient gravés les mystérieux caractères qui allaient dévoiler la cachette du trésor du roi Salomon et de la reine de Saba. On trouve vraiment tout à Venise, il suffit de chercher. "

Shanghai, 1936. Felice Sabatini is just a mechanic, working on Italian aircraft in China. He isn't looking for trouble, much less interested in getting caught up in a conspiracy against China, Japan, and Germany. Unfortunately for him, that's exactly what happens. Three different factions are after an ancient artifact and the mystical power it controls. Power that, if it falls into the wrong hands, could end up destroying the very world as we know it. Felice knows nothing of immortals, fox women, ninjas or dragons, never mind the Ministry of Storms. He is a rational man, after all. But before this journey is over he will be called upon to face all of that, never mind the power of ancient Chinese magic and a menace from Beyond Time. From the crowded streets of Shanghai to the empty stretches of the Desert of Inescapable Death, Ministry of Thunder is an explosive mix of Oriental Fantasy and New Pulp.

An inspector rages against the announcement that police HQ is to relocate - the way so many of the city's residents already have - to the mainland... An aspiring author struggles with the inexorable creep of rentalisation that has forced him to share his apartment, and life, with 'global pilgrims'... An ageing painter rails against the liberties taken by tourists, but finds his anger undermined by his own childhood memories of the place... The Venice presented in these stories is a far cry from the 'impossibly beautiful', frozen-in-time city so familiar to the thousands who flock there every year - a city about which, Henry James once wrote, 'there is nothing new to be said.' Instead, they represent the other Venice, the one tourists rarely see: the real, everyday city that Venetians have to live and work in. Rather than a city in stasis, we see it at a crossroads, fighting to regain its radical, working-class soul, regretting the policies that have seen it turn slowly into a theme park, and taking the pandemic as an opportunity to rethink what kind of city it wants to be.

The Golden House of Samarkand Rebellion
In this third volume in the definitive English language edition of Hugo Pratt's masterpiece, the action moves from South America to Europe against the backdrop of the First World War. In these six stories Pratt further explores such complicated themes as patriotism and greed, revolution and opportunism, and betrayal and seduction. Events take Corto from a small island in the Venetian lagoon, where he comes face to face with a beautiful blonde spy, to Stonehenge and an adventure with Merlin, Morgana, and Puck. Along the way he meets Ernest Hemingway and future billionaire Aristotle Onassis, Irish revolutionary Banshee O'Danann, the legendary Red Baron, and an intense cast of characters who weave in and out of a series of labyrinthine plots and counter-plots.

In this affectionate tribute to his home town, Hugo Pratt offers a complex mystery thriller involving Freemasons, occultists, and esotericists set during the rise of Fascism in 1921. Corto Maltese's return to Venice is ostensibly a search for an emerald known as the Clavicle of Solomon, but by the end he is left questioning whether the object of his quest will open the hidden doors of magic and unravel the nature of time and space in this city of secrets...or if it's merely "the stuff that dreams are made of," as was the black bird of Dashiell Hammett's novel featuring another Maltese. Series winner of the Harvey Award for Best American Edition of Foreign Material.
