How Beautiful (Twila Paris) Sheet Music Alfred Music
With nearly 400 scores to his credit, Ennio Morricone is one of the most prolific and influential film composers working today. In Composing for the Cinema, Morricone and musicologist Sergio Miceli present a series of lectures on the composition and analysis of film music. Adapted from several lectures and seminars, these lessons show how sound design can be analyzed and offer a variety of musical solutions to many different kinds of film. Drawing upon scores by himself and others, the composer also provides insight into his relationships with many of the directors with whom he has collaborated, including Sergio Leone, Giuseppe Tornatore, Franco Zeffirelli, Warren Beatty, Ridley Scott, Roland Joffé, the Taviani Brothers, and others. Delivered in a conversational mode that is both comprehensible and interesting, this groundbreaking work intertwines analysis with practical details of film music composition.

Theme from "Ladies in Lavender" : arranged for violin with piano accompaniment Hal Leonard Corporation

This book combines the talent and experience of the legendary virtuoso, Leon Goossens, and the contemporary composer/oboist Edwin Roxburgh. In it the oboe becomes a veritable Pied Piper of history, leading us through the mystic rites of the ancient world, Greece, Rome and the Crusades, up to the present day. There are illuminating chapters on baroque, classical, romantic and twentieth century music. The mark of Goossens' long experience as an international soloist is woven into every page, whether in his observations about great soloists of the past or in pertinent views on modern recording methods. This is a broadly-based book which shows the close relationship between history, the technique of playing and the music of the oboe. Edwin Roxburgh contributes a detailed explanation of extemporization and ornamentation in eighteenth-century music as well as an optimistic review of new developments in oboe playing and modern music. For the student there is a whole section on reed-making and performing techniques together with detailed advice for teachers. There are useful appendices which include a discography, a repertoire section with helpful comments, and a list of manufacturers. Many fascinating illustrations and photographs punctuate the text throughout.

Raaba Book of World Records Alfred Music

From the very first lessons in Book 1, students are making music as they explore the piano keyboard through fun improvisation pieces called My Own Song. The beginning of the book introduces finger numbers, the black-key and white-key groups, and basic rhythm patterns. Directional reading is taught first by finger number, then by note name, and then by interval (stop, skip, and repeat). Once the students are introduced to the staff, they learn reading guides Bass F and Treble G and read by interval in several different hand positions.
