'Arabiyyat al-Naas (Part One), second edition, offers a groundbreaking introduction to Arabic as it is written and spoken by native speakers. It combines a grounding in Modern Standard Arabic (MSA) with an innovative integration of the spoken Levantine variety used in Syria, Lebanon, Jordan and Palestine. The course efficiently prepares students for the practical realities of learning and "living" Arabic today. The book contains 29 theme-based units covering all the core topics expected in a first-year Arabic course, such as countries, clothes, colors, family and professions. The book is to be used in conjunction with the companion website (www.routledge.com/cw/younes) offering a wealth of additional instructor and student resources. This volume is the first in an exciting three-part series of Arabic textbooks which together provide a complete three-year undergraduate language program. The book is an essential resource for students beginning to learn Arabic. While primarily designed for classroom use, it is also highly suitable for independent study. The materials are designed to bring students from the novice low level to the intermediate low level on the ACTFL scale, and from A1 to A2/B1 on the CEFR scale.

Yall? Part One Routledge

This book was designed to introduce Arabic Alphabet to learners of All ages. The book is in two parts: The Student's Book and the Activity Book. The Student's Book includes the basic lessons with supportive exercises and wordlists. The Activity Book includes the reading and writing activities which cover the material learnt in the Student's book. The objective of dividing this work into two books is to make it easier for learners, especially the young ones. To cover all alphabet items and provide sufficient and variant exercises is somehow unachievable within one book as it will become bulky; heavy to carry and handle. The work is divided in a way that it can be used easily and practically. The Student's Book can be used to learn how to read while acquiring new items of vocabulary. The Activity Book is to learn writing and reinforce the vocabulary through various quizzes and exercises. Every word in the book is illustrated with an image to link the visual memory of the meaning (the identified) to the written form of the word (The identifier). Each chapter is entailed with a wordlist that includes all the words in the chapter. The words are presented in three aspects: - Arabic - English - Image Although the book is illustrated in a way that looks like a children's book, it still can be practically used by adult learners to learn the alphabet, how to read and build up their vocabulary. The book is originally designed to introduce Arabic Alphabet to speakers of other languages. However, because it uses English as the main medium to introduce Arabic, the book can be used to increase the English vocabulary of Arab children who are using the book to learn Arabic. Therefore, the book can be used by primary schools in non-Arabic speaking countries or international schools in Arab countries to teach early years pupils. The Student's Book includes 8 chapters. Each of these chapters includes the following sections: 1. Letters and Words 2. Reading exercises 3. Wordlist with images The Activity Book includes relevant chapters to the lessons in the Student's Book. Each chapter includes: - Reading exercises - Quizzes - Colouring activities - Writing activities The parent or teacher can start with the Student's Book and move to the Activity Book whenever they think that the learner is ready to explore and do more exercises.

The Arabic alphabet has a rich history, one that is closely linked with the development of culture and society in the Middle East. In this comprehensive introduction the authors trace the origins of the Arabic alphabet back to Aramaic, which also gave rise to the Hebrew and Greek alphabets. Using detailed illustrations the authors investigate early Arabic papyri and early Islamic inscriptions as well as classical Arabic scripts. John F. Healey and G. Rex Smith bring the story up to the present day by examining the practice of calligraphy, printing and computing in Arabic.
