Legislative Documents, Comprising the Department and Other Reports Made to the Senate and House of Representatives of Pennsylvania During the Session of ... Skyhorse Publishing Inc.

Two young men, a German world traveller and an Afghan shepherd, who have been brought up in two different worlds, in different religions and cultures, under extremely different life circumstances, become friends in the war zone of the Afghanistan desert. They exchange their life stories and dreams - dreams they want to live, dreams they can't afford - and they find out together that they would do nearly anything to have their dreams come true. An adventurous plan develops to get the finance for the fulfilment of their dreams. The plan sounds like a crazy action movie, including an impressive plot which won't harm any people... but which will be a wake-up call to those who are in power to change the future and to end wars. When an awful massacre happens in close proximity to the two friends, they leave the desert to turn the plan into reality, all depending on which interest group, during this crazy war, decides to pay them... to do... or not to do... what they planned! So they go... and start to Walk the Talk, delivering a unique message to the world, and to the President of the United States of America.
