Jeremiah 29:11 for I Know the Plans I Have for You: Bible Verse Notebook Charisma Media The Knowing the Bible series is a resource designed to help Bible readers better understand and apply God's Word. These 12-week studies lead participants through books of the Bible and are made up of four basic components: (1) reflection questions help readers engage the text at a deeper level; (2) "Gospel Glimpses" highlight the gospel of grace throughout the book; (3) "Whole-Bible Connections" show how any given passage connects to the Bible's overarching story of redemption, culminating in Christ; and (4) "Theological Soundings" identify how historic orthodox doctrines are taught or reinforced throughout Scripture. With contributions from an array of influential pastors and church leaders, these gospel-centered studies will help Christians see and cherish the message of God's grace on every page of the Bible. Appointed to be a prophet before he was born, Jeremiah faithfully preached God's Word in the face of confusion, opposition, and persecution. When instructed, he brought the message of God's righteous judgment against sin to the nation of Israel, but not without reminding them of God's covenant faithfulness. In this 12-week study, Matthew Harmon highlights key biblical themes, clarifies crucial doctrines, and draws personal applications from the book of Jeremiah—reminding us of the truth that God's proclamation of judgment is always intended to spur his people to seek salvation in and through him.

She wants faith, hope, and love. She wants help and healing. She wants to hear and be heard, to see and be seen. She wants things set right. She wants to know what is true—not partly true, or sometimes true, or almost true. She wants to see Truth itself, face-to-face. But here, now, these things are all cloudy. Hope is tinged with hurt. Faith is shaded by doubt. Lesser, broken things masquerade as love. How does she find something permanent when the world around her is always changing, when not even she can stay the same? And if she finds it, how does she hold on? She Reads Truth tells the stories of two women who discovered, through very different lives and circumstances, that only God and His Word remain unchanged as the world around them shifted and slipped away. Infused with biblical application and Scripture, this book is not just about two characters in two stories, but about one Hero and one Story. Every image points to the bigger picture—that God and His Word are true. Not because of anything we do, but because of who He is. Not once, not occasionally, but right now and all the time. Sometimes it takes everything moving to notice the thing that doesn't move. Sometimes it takes telling two very different stories to notice how the Truth was exactly the same in both of them. For anyone searching for a solid foundation to cling to, She Reads Truth is a rich and honest Bible-filled journey to finally find permanent in a world that's passing away.

Do you wish you clearly understood the different views of the millenium and know why you believe which view you hold to? General editors and experienced bible scholars John MacArthur and Richard Mayhue help to provide a clear and convincing Biblical explanation for the interpretive approach to Scripture that results in a knowable futuristic view of Christ's millennial reign on earth. Christ's Prophetic Plans also helps provide the certain validity of God's promises to future Israel, and the crucial differences between Israel (as a people and a nation) and the New Testament church. Christ's Prophetic Plans offers the reader John MacArthur's most explicit writing on eschatology and is perfect for pastors, bible professors, teachers, and students with a heart and mind for discovering Biblical truth. This primer takes you on a Biblical study of questions surrounding prophecy, Israel, the rapture, and the different millennial views. The fruit of such study is great as God specifically promises His blessing on those who know and obey the things of biblical prophecy (Revelation 1:3; 22:7).

This beautiful, women's Bible study journal is designed to provide you the framework for which you can use to study God's Word. To use this journal, choose the topics or scriptures that interest you or use it as a companion to another Bible study you are working on. Each week starts with a section that will help you plan out the passages of scripture you will study each day of the week. Then, each day, there are sections for you to physically write the scripture you are studying as well as a space to write praise and prayer requests. The next page guides you through the S.O.A.P.(Scripture, Observation, Application, Prayer) Method of Bible Study. Finally, there is a page set aside for reflection. You will be asked "What is this scripture telling me?," "Why did God include this Scripture in the Bible?," and "What do I need to further study from this verse?" Check out all the journals in this series by searching "Women's Bible Study Journal" or the author, Helen D. Keto, to find more beautiful designs to choose from. The delightfully fresh cover design of the For I Know the Plans Faux Leather Classic Journal with Zipped Closure speaks of hope and new life. This sentiment is reinforced by the Scripture verse that acts as the title. Green watercolored leaves on a creamy background are scattered across the back cover and spine and spill over onto the front cover where it meets a smooth ivory panel with a double row of topstitching. Small pink watercolored flowers that hint of spring livens up the scene. The soft ivory panel houses the partially gold foiled sentiment in bold lettering. A zippered closure ensures your pages and loose notes are protected, and 366 lined pages offer plenty of space to journal about your future. A Bible verse at the bottom of each page will inspire you to meditate on Scripture. A presentation page and satin ribbon marker are also included for your convenience.
