The Standard Prayer Book commonly known as Singer's Siddur is an English translation of the Hebrew siddur created by Rabbi Simeon Singer. A siddur is term for a Jewish prayer book, containing a set order of daily prayers. The word siddur comes from the Hebrew and means 'order'. Singer provides an authorized version of the liturgy capable of standardizing and stabilizing the synagogue service and helping to create an "established" Judaism. The author's goal was to unite precision and literalness regarding English language and the simplicity of expression suiting the religious prayer. Singer's Siddur has gone through many editions, and is still used in many synagogues and homes.

Many people turn to the Internet when they have questions about anything including Judaism. Spiritual searchers today are no different. The profusion of Web sites, online forums, and e-mail discussion groups devoted to Judaism provides ample testimony to the need and desire for nearly instantaneous access to spiritual information and guidance. In our modern technology focused society today, America Onlines Ask a Rabbi service was an instant hit the moment it was introduced over a decade ago. As an original volunteer for this service for eight years, Rabbi Kohn answered over 1,300 questions about every imaginable Jewish topic ranging from anti-Semitism, sex, God, Jewish holidays, death, Kabbalah, Kashrut, prayer, spirituality, and much more. Rabbi Kohns answers are short and concise, answering the questions directly often with humor but always with feeling. Jewish FAQs is a selection of nearly 300 of the best, most interesting, and informative questions and answers similar to a Web sites Jewish FAQ (frequently asked questions). A FAQ is a file containing the essential questions and answers to help users find and understand a Web site. Jewish FAQs is similar because it provides a basic introduction to anything and everything related to Jewish life all in one place. So if you have a question about Judaism, whether you're young or old, Internet savvy or a dyed-in-the-wool print-and-paper reader, chances are, you'll find the answer here in Jewish FAQs.

A Guide to Jewish Prayer

Lothrop Lee & Shepard

This momentous, critically acclaimed series is truly a people's prayer book, one that provides a diverse and exciting commentary to the traditional liturgy. It will help you find new wisdom and guidance in Jewish prayer, and bring the liturgy into your life. It also has received significant attention in the Christian world. The major sections of the prayer book each are covered in separate volumes in this series. My People's Prayer Book provides in each volume: The traditional Hebrew text A modern translation (designed to let people know exactly what the prayers actually say) Commentators from all perspectives of the Jewish world, some of today's most respected Jewish scholars and teachers, who cover the prayer book's connections to the Bible, history, traditional law, kabbalistic wisdom, feminism, modern developments and much more This stunning work, an important expression of the spiritual revival of our times, enables all worshipers to claim their connection to the heritage of the traditional Jewish prayer book. It rejuvenates Jewish worship in today's world, and makes its power accessible to all.

This two-volume work, Latin-into-Hebrew: Texts and Studies sheds new light on an under-investigated phenomenon of European medieval intellectual history: the transmission of knowledge and texts from Latin into Hebrew between the twelfth and the fifteenth century. Volume One: Studies, offers 18 studies and Volume Two: Texts in Contexts, includes editions and analyses of hitherto unpublished texts of medieval Latin-into-Hebrew translations. Both volumes are available separately or together as a set.

Are you interested in knowing what the Bible says about prayer? Then continue reading.
Ephesians 6:18 reads, "18 Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints."
Knowing YAHUAH's voice is critical to receive the answers to your prayers. To have a good relationship with the Most High, you have to have meaningful conversations; you achieve this through prayer. If you wish to learn the truth, you have to step outside the box; you must exercise an enormous amount of faith to understand how the Most High operates.

Hebrews 11:6 reads, "6 But without faith, it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to ELOHIM must believe that he is and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him." You cannot please the Most High without faith; as the scriptures state, you have to believe in His ability to help and reward you. You will have to open your "spiritual eyes" to see the Most High's sovereignty; also, believe in things that the world declares foolish. Many expect the Most High to operate the way the world works; the world's ways are not His. Isaiah 55:8-9, it reads, "For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith YAHUAH. 9 For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.” The way He intervenes and delivers His people is unexplainable and extraordinary; no one will steal His glory. Everyone will know that He is behind the scene conducting miracles. Take, for example, the walls of Jericho. YAHUAH made the soldiers in the Israelite army march around the city of Jericho for six days; on the seventh day, they walked around the city seven times; after the priest blew the shofar, the Israelites shouted, and the walls of Jericho fell. To confirm this, look at the book of Joshua 6:20, which reads, “So the people shouted when the priests blew with the trumpets: and it came to pass, when the people heard the sound of the trumpet, and the people shouted with a great shout, that the wall fell flat, so that the people went up into the city, every man straight before him, and they took the city.” To believe that the walls came down, you have to have faith. It takes an Israelite that knows his ELOHIM to believe; the world has been blinded; they cannot see the Most High's ability; the god of this world has blinded their eyes. 2nd Corinthians 4:4 says, “In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of YAHUSHUA, who is the image of YAHUAH, should shine unto them.” Here is another unexplainable example of how the Most High operates: look at the first exodus. YAHUAH could have led his people, the Israelites, out of the land of Mizrahi (Egypt) another way. Instead, YAHUAH chose to prove to the world that there is nothing too hard for Him. He is the only ELOHIM; He parted the sea and made the Israelites walk on dry land. When YAHUAH delivers you, He will do it remarkably, and only He can take the credit for your deliverance. Here is what others are saying about this book: 5.0 out of 5 stars, An eyes opener. I enjoyed reading this book because I have been searching for the truth about who I am and whose I am. Jacklin If you would like more, consider scrolling up and clicking the buy now button to get your book immediately. Tefillot Tamid Unknown Hebrew
