John Galsworthy was an English novelist and playwright, who won Nobel Prize for Literature in 1932. He came from a newly rich upper middle class commercial family. His works mainly dealt with the social class system prevalent at that time. He especially concentrated on the upper middle class to which his own family belonged. Although he treated his characters sympathetically, he highlighted their narrow-minded snobbishness and suffocating moral values. This selection chosen by the critic August Nemo contains the following stories: The First and Last A Stoic The Apple Tree The Juryman Indian Summer of a Forsyte The Hedonist Buttercup Night

English, Short Stories, Intermediate Level Teach Yourself INTRODUCING: 8 Provocative Short Stories to Learn French (Including Tons of Vocabulary & Detailed Quizzes) Do you know what's the most popular, breakthrough way of learning a new language nowadays? There's something that's for sure: you already know it isn't common, old-fashioned type of language learning books. Those are incredibly boring and outdated. But there's so much more than that. Today, the most popular, hustle-free way of learning a foreign language is this: by reading short stories, fun tales, and captivating narratives that keep you hooked from beginning to end. Do we have your attention already? Great. Because that's exactly what this book is about. Captivating Stories + French Language = Learn Faster The best thing about using short stories to learn foreign languages is that you actually learn without realizing you're doing it. Think for a second, when was the last time you learned something new without much effort on your part? When was the last time you actually enjoyed the learning process and were eager to keep advancing, page after page, having fun the whole time? Most likely than not, it's tough to recall feeling like that. That's why learning French with short stories is catching up so much momentum lately: it works, it's fun, and it's pretty much hustle-free. In this volume you'll find eight exciting short stories intended for beginners and low intermediate French learners. They've been prepared for A1, A2 and B1 levels of the CEFR (Common European Framework of Reference). You just have to focus on one story at a time and start reading. Each story contains 3000 to 4000 words, and they can be read quite effortlessly. The stories deal around multiple genres, including mystery, adventure, fantasy and romance, and take place in France. We've prepared these tales to keep you entertained and motivated to continue reading until the very end of each story. We strongly believe that learning while enjoying yourself is the ideal approach to learning. INCLUDING: Tons of Vocabulary, Detailed Exercises & Summaries of Each Tale This volume contains eight short tales written in French. Each story is divided into three chapters. The first chapter introduces the characters and the general setting. Chapter 2 presents the conflict, and Chapter 3 solves it completely. After each chapter you'll find an Annex with a short summary of what you just read, a list with the most challenging vocabulary introduced in that chapter, and quizzes to expand your comprehension. Based on the Speech Plasma Method, the book is designed to teach students to speak English at intermediate level. The volume contains twenty short stories and special training drills. This volume will enable foreign students of English to feel more comfortable with the language at a more advanced level. The book is a collection of stories told by people in everyday conversational manner. The stories are accounts of incidents or ideas which the people interviewed consider interesting or entertaining. They are not intended as great works of literature, rather as examples of people using their language naturally. The stories are the sort of tales that you might hear in a pub or at a party, reflections on anything from weather and inquisitive neighbours to a passion for music and how it can help handicapped children. At times amusing, surprising, entertaining or simply hard to believe, they are all related in the kind of natural informal style which language learners so often wish to imitate. This collection will help show you how to do just that. Audiobook version of the volume is available in the Kindle Store. Short Stories in French for Beginners Teach Yourself A great story can lead a reader on a journey of discovery--especially if it's presented in two languages! Beautifully illustrated in a traditional style, Japanese Stories for Language Learners offers five compelling stories with English and Japanese language versions appearing on facing pages. Taking learners on an exciting cultural and linguistic journey, each story is followed by detailed translator's notes, Japanese vocabulary lists, and grammar points along with a set of discussion questions and exercises. The first two stories are very famous traditional Japanese folktales: Urashima Taro (Tale of a Fisherman) and Yuki Onna (The Snow Woman). These are followed by three short stories by notable 20th century authors: Kumo no Ito (The Spider's Thread) by Akutagawa Ryunosuke (1892-1927) Oborekaketa Kyodai (The Siblings Who Almost Drowned) by Arishima Takeo (1878-1923) Serohiki no Goshu (Gauche the Cellist) by Miyazawa Kenji (1896-1933) Reading these stories in the original Japanese script--and hearing native-speakers read them aloud in the accompanying free audio recording--helps students at every level deepen their comprehension of the beauty and subtlety of the Japanese language. Learn Japanese the fun way--through the country's rich literary history.
