A Complete Guide to Bed and Breakfasts, Guesthouses and Inns of Missouri Pelican Publishing

From the Ablemarle Inn in Asheville to the Delamar Inn in Beaufort, more than 100 personally inspected accommodations eagerly await visitors.

The Complete Guide to Bed and Breakfasts Inns and Guesthouses Wiley

With descriptions of more than one thousand B&Bs throughout the United States, this new bed and breakfast guide is an invaluable resource for the both the avid bed and breakfast traveler and the first-time lodger. Bed and breakfast stays often provide travelers with new perspectives on a region. Local innkeepers usually know the best-kept secrets of the area-tales of local legend, accounts of historical events, or directions to an out-of-the-way attraction. Whether it's an antebellum Southern plantation, a restored Victorian mansion, or a rustic wilderness lodge, this bed and breakfast guide lists them all. The B&Bs are listed alphabetically by state, and a state map is provided at the beginning of each section. The entries provide contact information for the B&Bs, including Web sites and e-mail addresses where applicable. Room rates, amenities, discounts, and restrictions are also provided, along with each innkeeper's description of his or her inn. Plan your next vacation or weekend excursion with this guide in hand. You will find what you're looking for, whether it is adventure, romance, or pure relaxation.
